MAN INJURED IN BLAST

TNT Cache Found in S.S.F.

By GEORGE GOLDING

A hoard of high explosives, enough to blow up a city block, was removed from a South San Francisco home garage last Friday night by police officers and exploded in a remote quarry, it was revealed Monday.

Officers said the chemicals, including more than three quarts of liquid TNT, were found after an ambulance call last Tuesday to the home of John Khino, 38, 861 Camaritas Circle, in the Wiston Manor area.

Khino, who suffered burns of the face and body, loss of part of one hand, body punctures from bits of flying glass, and serious loss of blood, refused to talk to police.

Officers assisted him into an ambulance, and learned he had apparently been a victim of an explosion either in his backyard, or in his garage.

Khino was taken to Mary's Help Hospital, where he reportedly remains in considerable pain.

After reviewing a preliminary report of the incident, Chief Detective Sal Rosano, Officer Ray McKeon, technican Larry Ross, and Fire Inspector William Fox, visited the home.

They said the Khino garage had been converted into a chemical laboratory for manufacturing high explosives.

Mrs. Khino said only that whatever her husband did in the garage was his hobby, and that she did not concern herself about it.

The explosion that injured Khino, and other facts that they had learned, had given officers a different viewpoint.

Because of the apparent potential hazard to the neighborhood, as well as to Khino's wife and children, the officers conferred with the district attorney's office and decided to enter the locked garage.

Inside, they found it had been converted into an amateur chemical laboratory, stocked with "hundreds upon hundreds of bottles of dangerous and hazardous chemicals, propellants, and explosives."

Officers carefully loaded the more dangerous appearing chemicals into a vehicle and hauled them to police headquarters.

There, the technicians peered at labels, and discovered "three or four quarts" of Tri-nitro-toluene, or TNT; another quart of lead azide, a touch-sensitive explosive used in percussion caps for gun shells another such chemical named mercury fulminate, used in blasting caps; a heat sensitive explosive known

Student Shift Is Rejected

First Two Candidates Enter Race

Two Daly City girls are hoping that the adage "first come, first served" will hold true for them as they became the first two to file for the 1966 Miss Daly City contest last week.

Joyce Solari and Judy Culpepper, both seniors at Jefferson High School, signed their application forms in the offices of co-chairman Fred Martin last week.

The winner of the contest will represent the city in the Miss San Mateo County contest which is held in conjunction with the County Fair and Floral Fiesta held yearly in San Mateo.

Preliminary judging for Miss Daly City this year will be held in the Westmoor High School Little Theater on April 29.

Final judging will be held on May 26 at the South San Francisco Elks' Club. Carter B. Smith of San Francisco radio

THREE RACES ASSURED

14 Seek Vote In Trustee Election

Four more candidates — all Pacificans—joined the race for trustees of a proposed North County unified school district prior to the deadline for filing nomination papers at 5 p.m. Friday.

Their entry brought to 14 the number of candidates who will vie for seven seats on the unified board.

Election of trustees and voting on a plan to unify the area comprised by the Jefferson Union High School area will be held June 7 in conjunction with the Primary.

Residents will elect candidates to represent four trustee areas. Races are assured in three of the four areas. Only one candidate filed to represent Bayshore.

None of the final four candidates to file their papers are now school trustees. The ten candidates who previously had filed are members of school boards.

The 11th hour entrants were: Laguna Salada trustee area—Walter A. Henkel of 1525 Flores Drive, an engineer; Stanley M. Farber of 1352 Redwood Way, a pharmacist; Wilbur C. Frye of 127 Montecito Avenue, a business analyst, and Mrs. Anita R. Heyman of 263 Edgewood Drive, a housewife.

Of the three trustee areas, Laguna Salada will see the most spirited race. Seven candidates will vie for two seats.

Those running in addition to the four who filed last week are Dale W. Buettgenbach and Charles A. Hauser Jr., Laguna Salada trustees, and James M. Cooper, Jefferson High School District trustee.

In the Jefferson Elementary trustee area, four candidates are seeking three seats. They

Rifle Shot Kills Boy In Pacifica

Accidental, Police Say

A Pacifica mother accidental ly shot the youngest of her four children last week with a .30-.30 hunting rifle, Pacifica police reported.

The weapon discharged when she placed it on a bed, she indicated to police.

Officers said David Brown, who would have celebrated his second birthday two weeks from Tuesday, was killed at the parents' home, 209 Hillside Drive.

Inspector Paul Averett disclosed officers have been unable to obtain a coherent story from the distraught mother, Marjorie Alayne Brown, the wife of California Highway Motorcycle Patrolman Marvin Brown.

Fire Capt. Cal Hinton, a member of a fire department resuscitator squad and first on the scene after Mrs. Brown called her husband in San Francisco and then the police, reported that Mrs. Brown was sitting in an overstuffed chair in the living room, holding the body of her dead child and sobbing hysterically.

"Tell me it isn't so. Tell me it isn't so," she sobbed as firemen took the child's body from her.

"Make him breathe. Make him breathe," she appealed again and again as firemen worked over the child. Three older children, Marvin, 8; Cherie 6, and Lorrie, 4, stood crying in the living room until a neighbor came and took them out.

Holy Filing Deadline!

BATMAN arrives at Pacifica City Hall to file his nomination papers for election to the City Council. The action startled Pacificans. It should also startle readers. But without cause. For it's the Post-Times' way of saying "April Fool" two days early. The picture above is a bit of trick photography. Batman, it can be accurately reported, did NOT visit Pacifica. (For more April Fool-ishness, see Don Miller's Pacific Parade column on Page 16.)

JUHS Votes 'Open' Plan For Boundary

Action Follows Public Hearings

Trustees of Jefferson Union High School District rejected the two most controversial proposals of a Citizens' Boundary Committee, at Monday night's board meeting.

Final decision was based on two public hearings. Each showed overwhelming evidence of support for the "neighborhood school" concept.

In essence, future Pengate High School students will not have to attend Jefferson High School to alleviate overcrowding at Westmoor, nor will Westmoor students be bused to Oceana High School, except voluntarily.

Although not one of the specific recommendations of the Citizens' School Attendance Boundary Study Committee was implemented, a new committee to be appointed by trustees next month will tackle future boundaries and problems of de facto segregation.

Board approval was given to most of the general recommendations of the original boundary study committee, and the new committee will utilize their research, trustees stated

Specifically, the board's decisions Monday night were: the proposal that ninth, tenth and eleventh grade students from Westlake Units 1 and 2 and part of Broadmoor and Garden Village should attend Jefferson.

Rejected the proposal that ninth to eleventh grade students from the Bayshore, Brisbane, and Daly City areas east of Wellington Avenue should attend Westmoor. (These would be future Pengate students.)

Supt. Edward Morgan had previously rejected the committee proposals in a February 28 report, stating: "In my opinion, it is almost impossible to ask 600 students to shift their allegiances and become loyal and Egbert P. Dayton, 60, a construction superintendent, and father of Monte Dayton, Times' promotion manager and Post operations manager, was killed in a collision near Folsom Sunday.

Coast Arrest In Bombings

A Pacifica man, 20-year-old Alex Gaspar of 353 Clifton Road, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Pacifica police on a grand jury indictment charging two counts each of attempted extortion and unlawful use of explosives.

Gaspar, arrested in San Francisco, is a suspect in the bombings of two markets in Pacifica last December.

Contract For Paving Given L. C. Smith

The Daly City Council Monday night voted to award a contract for the 1966 street resurfacing project to L. C. Smith Company, which submitted a low bid of $40,335.

The project involves repaving of portions of some 20 streets, ranging from Geneva Avenue in the Bayshore district to Brooklawn Avenue in Westlake.

Most of the streets, however, are in the older area of Daly City—near Mission Street and Hillside Boulevard.

The project, said City Engineer Art Reschke, "involves a much larger area than we have ever before covered."

Most of the streets, he added, are residential thoroughfares that have been passed over for more urgent projects in past years.

SCHOOL DECISION

S.S.F. to Retain Sports Programs

The South San Francisco Unified School District Monday night voted to retain the present sports programs at its two high schools and to inaugurate five sports into expanded athletic programs at the district's three junior high schools.

Next year the junior high school will handle seventh, eighth and ninth grade students while the high schools will have only tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

A standing-room-only crowd of over 70 people turned out for the meeting which lasted for over three hours in the board's chambers.

Most heated argument occurred on the matter of the retention of soccer in the sports programs of both South San Francisco and El Camino High Schools.

Adherents of retention of the sport won their point but lost a bid to have soccer played in the ninth grades of the junior high schools.

The board voted in the end to retain all existing sports at the two high schools. There had been a fear on the part of some parents and students that certain so-called "minor" sports would be eliminated.

The board approved a five-sport program for the junior high schools which includes: tackle football (for ninth graders only), touch football (for seventh and eighth grade students), basketball, baseball and track.

In other action, the board:

Approved preliminary drawings for the new Skyline grammar school.

San Bruno Council Has Quiet Night

San Bruno's City Council moved through Monday night's business with speed, approving routine items and making little of possible hot political issues.

Two letters from Richard Griffith, a frequent council challenger, were ordered filed after they had been read. One letter suggests that certain council members are involved in "conflict of interest" situations, the other outlines areas of civic improvement the author feels are needed.

Another letter, from Henry

FOX REFUTES CHARGES

Hassle Over Beaches in Pacifica

By BERENICE PALMER

Expressing concern that there was misinformation and some confusion about Pacifica's beach purchase proposal, and two other ballot measures, Pacifica councilmen approved a statement at last week's meeting, prepared by Mayor James Fox.

In it, Fox refuted some of the charges that have been made by an anti-bond group and candidates. "I have also attempted to answers questions," Fox said, "that I feel are in peoples mind on these issues."

Then the fireworks began. A small but vocal group, two of them candidates for City Council, protested the council action and challenged some of the mayor's statements. At one point, Fox stated: "I am afraid we have been trapped into a candidates' night."

Agreeing with Mayor Fox that the council was "100 per cent for having the bond issues put on the ballot," Councilman Fred Ballew added: "If we believe in these things, we have to provide leadership and answers and it is necessary to refute misstatements."

An anti-bond group led by former Mayor Gerry Schumacher had contended that all avenues had not been pursued to have the state or county take over the beaches. Mayor Fox described the numerous attempts and explorations the city has made to encourage the state and county to develop Pacifica's beaches.

Both refused to consider development," Fox brought out, "because there is no adjacent acreage to meet their standards. The job, therefore, most be assumed by the city."

Bob Sale, from Sharp Park, asked why the beaches couldn't be left for "free enterprise." Councilman Harland Minshew described how a private developer could exclude public use of the beach.

"I'm not against private enterprise—I'm in it myself," he said, "but there are times when government has to step in."

Mayor Fox described how private development along Pedro

On the boundary between Westmoor and Oceana:

Rejected the proposal that ninth, tenth and eleventh grade students south of a suggested basic boundary should be housed at Oceana High School until Serramonte High School is completed.

Instead, trustees approved their own recommendation of March 18, which was: until Serramonte opens, no Westmoor High School student shall be required, against his parents' will to attend Oceana High School. An open enrollment policy will be established at Westmoor to permit any student from there who desires, to transfer to Oceana. Transportation will be provided for the regular day and extra curricula program. The board had also recommended that portable classrooms be rented and installed to alleviate overcrowding.

a seat she had gained by appointment from Gov. Edmund G. Brown

She was named to the fifth supervisoral district seat, made vacant by the death of supervisor-elect Joseph Verducci of Daly City.

County Controller Edward J McGuire of San Bruno and Northern Judicial District Municipal Court Judge F. Jose de Larios of South San Francisco also are unopposed.

The most lively race, a North County candidate will face will be the election of a county recorder. The incumbent, Ruth Kirsts, has announced she will retire.

Thomas F. Ryan, a South San Francisco real estate businessman, is one of seven candidates who will vie for the post.

Two North County candidates are in a four-way race for the job of county assessor. They are James Paul Green of Daly City, a real estate appraiser and Thomas F. Noonan, a Pacific Telephone Company employe. The incumbent, Ralph Woodman, is retiring.

In the race for county treasurer, Joseph Lewkowitz, treasurer of Daly City, will vie with incumbent Albert H. Sagehorn and one other candidate.

The campaign for sheriff finds Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage vying with incumbent Earl B. Whitmore and a former sheriff's reserve officer.

Council Has Quiet Night

W. Crosby, council candidate who reportedly has Griffith's support, said he welcomed the backing of any citizen, but that he had not had time to investigate the alleged conflicts of interest and would make no comment on them.

Councilmen heard a plea for city employes to be allowed to have payroll deductions made by the city for such things as union dues and health plans, and directed the employe leader to find out how many would like such deductions before the council gives the plea more consideration.

They approved a newly codified collection of the city's ordinances, formed a special committee to study a proposed Fox Theater sign near Skyline, and called for bids for an auto for the city's recreation department.

Councilmen agreed with the Division of Highways on traffic signals at Skyline Boulevard and San Bruno Avenue, at a cost to the city of $8,000.

They budgeted money for widening Sneath Lane between El Camino and Junipero Serra, and approved an agreement with the state for extending Huntington Avenue northward into Tanforan under the future East-West freeway on Route 186.

Unanimously, they approved applications for five fireworks stands, as submitted prior to the March 15 deadline. No others are to be accepted or granted this year.

2 Indicted In Store Blasts

Evidence against the persons believed responsible for two market bombings in Daly City and Pacifica last December was presented to the County Grand Jury in a four-hour hearing Monday night.

District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson pointed out that he would be unable to disclose the fact of indictments in any case in which the defendants were not in custody.

Sorenson said in advance of the meeting, however, that indictments would be sought against the persons who are believed to have planted time bombs in the Mayfair Market at 2665 Geneva Avenue, Daly City, December 20, and at the Central Foods Market at 609 Crespi Drive in Pacifica on the following day.

Coastside In Hassle On Beaches

Beach has taken the form of two real estate offices, an application for an office building, and for private homes.

"These private uses would ultimately destroy access and recreational uses of our city."

Emory Lebonneville tried to pin councilmen down to a specific acreage of purchase. Jim Telegon rose to the defense of the council on land estimates. He said that a professional land appraiser had been hired by the city and that he and two other members of the Coastside Board of Realtors had helped on an estimate. "Any reference to square footage and costs per square foot would be invalid," he said. "There is a meandering border on the ocean front that changes with the mean high tide."

Mayor Fox said he was convinced that the acquisition cost estimate for beach purpose ($1,865,000) was both sound and valid.

In other business, the council:

Continued a public hearing to consider revisions to the general plan for the city which shows future intended use of land.

Councilman Don McMannis recommended a service commercial area in the south end of the city. Other recommendations to the Planning Commission were for inclusion of Mori's Point as commercial-recreation and Shelter Cove.

On a county-wide basis, 43 candidates filed for 21 school board positions in three proposed unified districts. In addition to the North County, unification plans have been proposed for the San Mateo and Sequoia High School Districts.

Unlike voting in the North County trustees for the San Mateo and Sequoia areas will be elected at-large. Of the 43 candidates, 32 are now members of school boards that would be eliminated by unification.

The inventory of chemicals took 19 pages, police said, and a chemical engineer was called in to verify that many of them were extremely dangerous. He advised blowing up the hoard immediately.

Two Sixth Army explosives experts were called in, and tenderly hauled the most vicious of the chemicals to a remote quarry, where they were exploded with blasting caps.

Officers said three separate blasts were used to destroy the explosives, and that the blasts could have ripped homes apart for hundreds of yards, if these had occurred in a residential area.

Police said many of Khino's chemicals were not exploded. These include several gallon jugs of the base chemicals for high explosives, such things as nitric acid and glycerine. These have not been destroyed because they are not explosively dangerous in their natural state, officers declared.

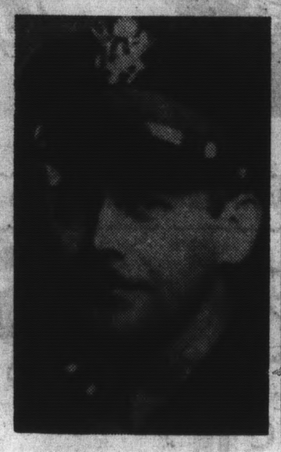
John J. Stack, Gold Hoard Finder, Dies in Daly City

Lt. Col. John Joseph Stack, 60, the man who found $5 billion worth of goods and valuables behind a false wall, in 1945, was found dead in bed Thursday afternoon at his home, 95 Northridge Avenue, Daly City.



JOHN J. STACK
Dies at 60

A retired Army officer, he was in charge of a unit during World War II seeking to frustrate the attempt of the Nazis to move their valuables into Bavaria as the war drew to a close.

Entering a bank in a south German city, the then lieutenant Staek noticed that a brick wall appeared to be newly built.

He ordered it torn down.

He ordered them ripped open.

A cache of gold bullion, securities and jewelry spilled out that was one of the most fantastically wealthy treasures in history.

It included jewelry taken from Jews in concentration camps, gold teeth, and chalices from churches.

The discovery wrecked the hopes of some Nazis to use the wealth to rebuild their movement beyond the defeated nation. And it set the stage for the reconstruction of Germany into a major, but friendly power.

The San Mateo County Coroner's office said that Stack's death came from apparently natural causes, and that the victim had a history of heart disease, according to Deputy Coroner Robert Crawley.

The officer was found by his son, Robert S. Stack, at 2:55 p.m.

Born in Boston, Lt. Col. Stack had moved to San Francisco before World War II and resided since in this area.

In addition to his son, he is survived by his wife, Isabel, of the Daly City home.

Funeral services were to be held yesterday afternoon by Carew & English Funeral Directors in San Francisco.

Burial was to be in Golden Gate National Cemetery.

DONNA HOWARD

Mrs. Donna Marie Howard, 39, of 401 Poplar Avenue, San Bruno, a hospital supply saleswoman, died March 19, at Peninsula Hospital after an illness. She was a native of Missouri, and a resident of San Mateo County 10 years.

Survivors include her husband, Russell; a daugher, Mrs. Linda D. DeMadarez, and a son, Donald R. Howard, San Bruno; three brothers, Ernest A. Rumbaugh, Hayward; Donald Rumbaugh, San Jose, and Major Edward Rumbaugh, Guatemala, and her father, Don Rumbaugh, Port Chicago.

Services were held from San Bruno Funeral Home. Interment was in Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Councilmen Give Report On Bunker

A documented and detailed research report on conversion of Pacifica's bunker site was read by Councilman Don McMannis at the Pacifica City Council meeting last Wednesday night.

The report, prepared by both McMannis and Councilman Harland Minshew, inquired also into the justification for converting the bunkers located on Milagra Ridge in the Sharp Park District—to a police and Civil Defense headquarters.

Approval had been given for the conversion by the City Council several months ago. McMannis dissented, and Minshew later criticized the use of a "concrete hole in the ground." Minshew had been absent because of illness at the Council meeting when the vote came up.

The cost factor still remained the main point of the two councilmen's objections. Although $106,000 for conversion, without roads, had been the figure arrived at, their objections were that a $226,566 maximum figure would be more of a reality. Federal aid would provide $59,000.

Added costs of $45,000 for sewer and water mains were also described in the council men's report, as well as a 24-foot access road.

Another objection brought out out was that an Army lease could be revocable and it would expire after 27 months.

The plan for conversion of the bunker site was described as "non-feasible in view of the long range costs to the city." A restudy was requested, as well as the possiblility of leasing office space near the present City Hall.

Mayor Fox called it a "well researched report" and said that the matter would be put on a council study session April 20.

Councilwoman Grace McCarthy cautioned that the importance of the bunker's use as an emergency operating center should not be overlooked. The bunker, which is underground, has six foot thick cement walls.

Pedro Beach Zone Change Faces Fight

Private commercial use of Pedro Beach may be facing a battle at a Planning Commission meeting in Pacifica Monday night.

Two requests protesting a zoning change of their beach property were sent to Councilmen by Peter T. LoBianco and Lawrence Wiechers.

Both properties, on the beach, have been zoned from commercial-recreation to agricultural.

LoBianco's property is south of Wander Inn and is being used as a real estate office. "Is Pacifica hoping to de-evaluate land which it wants to purchase on the beach?" LoBianco questioned in his letter.

Councilwoman Grace McCarthy stated at a council meeting last Wednesday evening: "The uses to which these properties are put are not compatible for beach use."

Pedro is considered by Pacificans to be the best beach area in Pacifica and has the most use by bathers and surfers.

Most of its privately owned but is being eyed by Pacifica for purchase if a beach bond proposal is successful in an April election.

BRIBERY CHARGED

Five Arrested In Bookie Raid

A woman and four men, including Lido L. Landi, well known Pacifica merchant and amateur golfer, were arrested in a bookmaking raid in Pacifica last Tuesday.

District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson said an additional charge of attempting to bribe a Pacifica police officer was filed against the 37-year old Landi.

Landi was accused, Sorenson said, of offering Police Officer Paul Averett, $150 a month to tip him off about bookmaking investigations in Pacifica.

Taken into custody along with Landi, who owns a grocery at 1750 Francisco Boulevard, Pacifica, were:

John E. Neligan, 30, a clerk in Landi's store, of 8 Huntington Drive, Daly City.

Malafouris, Neligan and Mrs. Stevens, were booked at County Jail on charges of conspiracy and bookmaking and were released on $2,775 bail each, pending arraignment in South San Francisco Municipal Court.

Landi, booked on the same charges, was assigned higher bail of $5,500 because of the bribery accusation. He posted bail and was scheduled to appear for arraignment with the others.

Cunnings, who is on probation for bookmaking, was jailed as a probation violator and is not eligible for bail.

Sorenson said the raid on the apartment occupied by Malafouris and Landi's store was the culmination of several weeks of investigation by his detectives and investigators of the Pacifica and Millbrae police deaprtments.

Landi and Neligan, who is accused of taking bets in the store, were arrested at the market. Sorenson said when the raiders went to Malafouris' apartment, they were surprised to find Mrs. Stevens there. It is alleged that she was helping Malafouris take bets.

The investigation, according to the district attorney, implicated Cunnings in the operation Sorenson refused to say how Cunnings was linked to the Pacifica operation, however. The investigation is continuing, he said, and more arrests may be made.

Sorenson charged that Landi was taking bets on the races and telephoning them from his store to Malafouris in his apartment. Bookmaking paraphernalia was seized in the apartment and officers took several bets that were phoned in while they were there.

Lido Landi

Sorenson said Officer Averett had worked at the direction of Police Chief Neil Tremaine and Chief Inspector A. L. Lamport of the district attorney's staff for several weeks to gain Landi's confidence.

The bribe offer was reported immediately, Sorenson said, and Averett continued to keep on friendly terms with the suspect and to discuss the offer. No money was ever paid, however, the district attorney said.

There was no estimate of the size of the operation.

As winter's final days grow longer, increasing light stimulates robins' pituitary gland to give off hormones. These activate the reproductive organs that in turn secrete other hormones into the blood stream. Thus are set up a series of urges to be obeyed in regular sequence. One of the first compels the bird to go back north to its breeding ground.

Pupils Hear Coast Debate On Planning

Democracy in action was observed by two groups of students at the Pacifica Council meeting in Pacifica last Wednesday night.

From the Civics Class at Oceana High School were six students with their teacher, Al Butler. Students from Butler's classes often come to council meetings.

Also in attendance were 12 students from the adult education Citizenship Course at Terra Nova High School. They were accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Mary Stewart.

Although Butler had probably warned his students that the early part of Pacifica's Council meetings usually are taken up with planning and related matjters, the Citizenship Class this time must have been in the dark.

At the conclusion of a long discussion on the policy of CIA zoning in Pacifica, (apartments over stores), which has been a headache to the council, Mayor Fox clarified it for the audience.

"We are trying to make a better development in this area (Sharp Park old business district), and are trying to reach a reasonable compromise with a property owner."

The property owner was builder Joe McGuigan, and his confrontation with the councilmen, often heated, may have helped to liven up an otherwise dull portion of the agenda for the students.

Practice Fire May Be Set

A condemned two-story apartment with an adjacent store on the northwest corner of Paloma and Palmetto Avenues in Pacifica may be the site April 21 of a fire department practice fire and drill.

Richard Taylor, building inspector, said numerous complaints about the deteriorating structure have been received from Pacifica residents and that the building is under a 60-day condemnation order.

The buildings formerly included a cleaning establishment, apartment and mobile trailer site. Broken blass and windows, and gaping doors in the deteriorating buildings have made it an "actractive nuisance" for children from the Sharp Park School, and an inducement to vandalism, nearby property owners state.

The site had been bought for the construction of a new apartment complex but financing difficulties have held up the development.

WE'RE ALWAYS for anybody being paid what he's worth, and said so in a recent column when discussing the Drysdale-Koufax case.

It's time, though, for the Dynamic Duo to begin viewing the matter practically, and also to perhaps look at it from O'Malley's viewpoint. Especially Koufax.

Say what you must about O'Malley, but he stuck by Koufax through all of his wild, losing years (six of them, which means he still owes Walter one before he gets even), and through Sandy's arm difficulties, cutting his salary nominally if at all and paying all the doctor bills.

If the boys really do sit this one out, it could prove a disaster to them both. Some say that the best thing in the world for Koufax would be the year's rest for his arm, but we go on the theory that a finely tuned athlete can get rusty and chance losing his edge with just that one year's respite. Drysdale, especially, could be affected. A man doesn't pitch 300 plus innings for five seasons running and do it again after a year's layoff.

Another thing that Sandy and Don are forgetting is the fickleness of the public. Heroes are forgotten fast, in our society, and should a vocal group of fans get the idea that Drysdale and Koufax could or did cost them the pennant, it wouldn't surprise us a bit to see the boys booed out of the park upon their return, even if it's later this season.

What men like Drysdale and Koufax and Mudcat Grant and Wills, et al, forget, is that their lucrative sidelines would be failures or non-existent if it weren't for their athletic glamour. Does Wills, for instance, really think he could make a living as a singer if he wasn't one helluva base stealer? We've heard him. He'd starve to death. The same goes for the acting abilities of Koufax and Drysdale.

And finally, if O'Malley doesn't give in, and we don't think he will, the boys are going to lose a year's salary which they'll never make up, even at last year's prices. Chances are, in fact, that if they decided to come back in '67, they'd be lucky to pull last year's salary.

It's time for Don Drysdale and Sandy Koufax to come to their respective senses. They're not kids any longer (Koufax is 30, Drysdale will be in July), and they don't have too many more lucrative years to play around with.

Walter O'Malley will be around long after they're gone.

WHILE ON THE subject of the Dodger organization, we think it's time the front office boys take stock and realize that they can't run forever on two arms, a set of legs and a group of rejects.

Examine the record. In the past three years, the Dodgers have come up with only two rookies of any real significance (Jim Lefevbre and Wes Parker), and don't seem to have any on the horizon, unless it's a few pitchers who might not get a chance to crack that staff, anyway.

In that same period only one worthwhile trade has been made, and even that one, Osteen for Howard, can be questioned because of the secondary players involved.

All else the Dodgers got was infielder Jack Kennedy, a good field-no hit, the type of which there is an abundance in the minor leagues, a fellow who was so impressive they had to replace him with a 37-year-old coach.

Washington, on the other hand, got Pete Richert, a lefthander who won as many games (15) with a ninth place club as Osteen did with the world's champs; Ken McMullen, who could probably right now play either third base or left field for the Dodgers; and Phil Ortega, a strong armed righthander who, while he didn't burn up the American League, showed definite improvement.

It may even be difficult to reconcile the Osteen for Howard part of the deal. Osteen couldn't win any more for the Dodgers than he had the year before with Washington. Howard, on the other hand, had a good if not great, year with the Senators.

Sure, the Dodgers needed that third strong starter, but would they have needed him as much had had retained Howard's 85-100 RBI's? . . . or McMullin, Richert and Ortega?

ITEMS NOTED: While opening last year's baseball season in Thomasville, North Carolina, Mayor Tom threw out the first pitch . . . and hit Miss North Carolina, Sharon Finch, on the chin. What happened was, the mayor, instead of looking where he was throwing, was throwing where he was looking. And thank goodness his aim was just a little bit high.

And Eddie Stankey (new White Sox manager) said when answering the question, "Isn't it important that your players like you,"? replied, "It is impossible to expect 25 men to like you. I have six children and I rub some of them the wrong way, and they don't like me as much as my other children . . ."

ONE OF THE least publicized facts about the Warriors, this past season, what with all the talk of Rick Barry, Guy Rodgers and Nate Thurmond, was the fact that little Alvin Attles finished third in NBA field goal percentage, consistently dumping in 51-52 per cent behind Wilt Chamberlain and Johnny Green. He didn't shoot a lot, but that wasn't necessarily his fault.

LOCAL NOTES:

Former all-league Westmoor shortstop Rich Morales has been given the personal look this spring by Stanky at the White Sox camp in Sarasota.

Morales, a protege of Pacifica's John Kelly (who also managed a 13-year-old Wally Bunker), since departed to Menlo Park, is good field-no hit, thus far. But he had a good winter playing third base for Leon in the Nicaraguan league, and was at least accorded close scrutiny by the Chicago hierarchy.

And a romantic note out of Pacifica. Ken Jenkins and Charlene Nelson, sweethearts since their freshman year at Terra Nova, were married by Floyd Champneys, a TN teacher and former Bishop of the Pacifica Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

What this item has to do with sports is that Jenkins, a hard running back, was the leading Tiger ground gainer and most valuable football player in both '63 and '64, and Champneys used to coach the swimming team.

Wasn't it clever how we worked THAT one in!

Finally, former Tiger pole vaulter Ken Gallo, who made this column just a couple of weeks ago as an up-and-coming College of San Mateo leaper, last week vaulted his highest ever, 13-9.

His coach, Paul Barnes, figures Gallo will clear 14-6 before the year is over, and his former Terra Nova mentor, Dennis Lanterman, isn't arguing the point.

South S.F., Oceana And EC All Win

El Camino, South San Francisco and Oceana High Schools stood atop the North Peninsula baseball league today to the surprise of no one, with each team winning away from home last Friday afternoon.

Title co-favorites SSF and El Camino had relatively easy times as the Colts blanked Jefferson, 3-0, behind the four-hit pitching of Paul Jones, and the Warriors knocked off Westmoor, 51.

In the other contest, Oceana scored four times in the last two innings for a come-from-behind 7-6 triumph at Half Moon Bay.

The Sharks tallied three times in the sixth to tie the score at six all, and then won it in the seventh when, after two were down, Dido Tellez singled, stole second, went to third on an error by the catcher, and scored when Mike Humphries singled to right.

Winning hurler Max Tellez aided his cause with a solo homer in the third inning. Andy Havice was the main cog for the Cougars, with two runs batted in.

South San Francisco handled Westmoor, but got much needed breathing room in the seventh when Vince Olson drove in two runs with a chop bunt over a drawn-in infield. Jim Henry and John Moro both rapped triples, with Bob Aurigemma picking up the win in Westmoor.

El Camino scored all three of its runs in the opening two frames, and then backed Paul Jones' pinpoint hurling with some fine fielding, to hold off the Indians in a tightly contested battle at Jefferson. Jones allowed no walks, while Gary Andreacchi had the big blow of the afternoon, slamming a three bagger in the first inning to highlight a two-run rally.

Horsehide Tournament Set in S.S.F.

The South San Francisco Invitational Baseball Tournament, an Easter vacation tradition, begins play Monday at Organe Park with an outstanding eight-team field.

El Camino High School, the defending champion, takes on strong Balboa of San Francisco at noon Monday, in the first game of the tournament.

Host South San Francisco tackles San Francisco's St. Ignatius at 3 p.m., in the second Monday tilt.

Tuesday, Richmond duels Vallejo at noon and Sacred Heart of San Francisco takes on Berkeley at 3 p.m., to fill out the first round of play.

All "noon teams" will comprise the upper bracket; All "3 p.m. teams" will make up the lower bracket.

Winners play winners on Wednesday; losers play losers, on Thursday.

The championship game is set for Saturday, April 9, at 2 p.m.

Swim Lessons Set at Jeff

The Jefferson Union High School District will offer adult swimming lessons every Wednesday night starting tonight for five weeks from 6:30 to 7:30 in the Jefferson High School swimming pool.

Classes for beginners and intermediates will be offered. Qualified Red Cross instruction will be given. A charge of $3 for the five lessons will be made.

The Jefferson pool is open every weekday night from 7:30 to 9 and on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 for recreational swimming. Wednesday night is ladies' night.

Admission is 25 cents for any student in the Jefferson Union High School District and 75 cents for adults.

4 N. County Athletes Get CSM Awards

Sophomore basketball star Bruce MacLaren, former all-county prep from El Camino High School, was voted most valuable player in basketball by his teammates.

Sophomore Glenn Stenstrom, two-time North Peninsula League champion from Westmoor, was wrestling's MVP. He now resides in Pacifica.

Benny Barrientos, freshman from South San Francisco was voted most improved honors. He is another two-time NPL champ.

MacLaren, a 6-5, 170-pound forward, led the Bulldog basketballers in field goal percentage (51.9) this season, and was second in scoring (13.8 average and 359 points,) free throw percentage (73.1) and rebounds (186). He was a second team all-Golden Gate Conference selection.

Donovan, of similar stature to MacLaren (6-4, 185 pounds), developed enough to become a sometimes starter late in the season and was instrumental as the Bulldogs held second place in the conference.

Stenstrom, a 137-pound competitor, was runner-up in the state junior college tournament and CSM's only placer in that event. He had a 14-2 dual-match record this season.

Barrientos came on well at the end of the season," according to Coach Lee Allen. "He certainly deserved the award, even though many other team members improved a lot, too."

WESTLAKE BOWL

OUR JUNIOR 900 team made it six in a row last week as they took three games from the Lucky Lanes team. Dan Gadd led the scoring with two 197 games and a total series of 580.

Other scores were Dave Smith 186—552; Alan Nelson 220—549; Mike Reams 201—535, and Larry Hilburn 190—553. With four teams tied for first place, our boys are making their move to overtake them.

It's "Hail to the Champions" as three leagues ended. Sutro and Laurel Markets won the 835 Scratch League by taking three games on the final night.

In the Westlake Knolls League, the Floor Styles team took first place while the Acme Export team won the Sleepers Handicap.

As the Monday Travel League visited Westlake Phil De Luca shot a great 665 series on games of 223-213 and 229. Other high rollers were Tony Silva with 631 on games of 204-172-255, Bill Owens with 223—617 and Lee Mayfield 213—602. The Skip Wong Insurance team set a new high team game of 1,011.

Sue Riley was the leading lady in the Bay Area's prestige ladies' league as she rolled a 605 series on games of 202-175 and 228.

Bernice and Bob Mahoney shared top honors in the Saturday Mixed Singles, Bernice with a 169 game and 452 series and Bob with 209—576.

Harry Hood topped the 865 Scratch League Friday night with a big 245 game and 612 series.

The Fouliners in the Veterans League set a team game record as they shot a 1,038 game led by Hank Chun's 265 effort. The 1,038 total was 234 pins over team average.

EVELYN SACCO had a double thrill last Wednesday night as she rolled her first game over 200 and first series over 500, on the same evening. In the 99'ers Mixed Fives League, she rolled a 222 game and 509 series.

Bob Morrison won the Friday Jackpot Sweeper as he shot a big 237 game and 659 series, but lost the Jackpot Rolloff to Bob Hood five strikes to three.

It's "Get in Shape" time at Westlake as the Spring-Summer season gets underway. With over 40 different leagues scheduled, there is a spot for everyone.

Another new high was set in the 850 American Scratch League as George Jow rolled three terrific games for a 670 series. George's three games were 203-225 and 242.

SEA BOWL

STARSHOOTERS—Val Salet, bowling with Salet Paperhanging Company, shot 225 for 552 and the high game and series for the men. For the ladies, Barb Beffa on Wisbey Realty had the high game, 192 and high series, 546. Keglerettes—Yevonne Hammer on Hilltop Beauty School had the high series for the ladies with a 543. The high game was rolled by Ingrid Hallgren on Fisher Realty with a nice 192.

Yawners—Lindy Baxter on Kirby Vacuum and Jo Lockhart also on Kirby shared the honors for the day with Lindy shooting 182 for high game and Jo 475 for the high series. Ruth Sealey picked up the 4-7-9 split. Mermaids—Reggie day with a 202 for a 532. Sheryl Wetenkamp on Regal Upholstery also had a good day shooting a nice 511.

Kings and Queens—Larry Sabrido on the Pink Mug Team had the high series for the men with a 193 for 526. Ken Thomson on Pacifica Plumbing had the high game with a 202. For the ladies, "Sam" Rugg on A.M.F. had 207 for 587. 825 Scratch—Angelo Bladelli really toppled the wood with a very big 268 game. Angelo bowls on Collins Plumbing 3. Gabby Mattson on Skyline Cleaners led the pack of 600s with 623. Tom Barrett on Collins Plumbing 2 had 221 for 602 and John Riley, Collins Plumbing 1 had 601. Lee Harris on F & S Bowling Supply had a 232 game.

Ebb Tides—Jeanne Allemand on McCune Sound Team had the high series with a 512, while Lyn Hall on Mode O'Day, Pacific Manor, shot the high game, 193.

Salty Fours—Rose Pruett on the All American Trophy Team had the high series for the ladies with a nice 537. That school really helped you? The high game was rolled by Lindy Baxter with a 190 game. For the men, Dick Janson on Vallemar Market had the high game with a 203 while Bob Jackson rolled 533 for the high series.

Tanglefoot—Dave Hylton rolled 201 for 566 and the high game and series for the men. For the ladies, Nina Hefner shot 188 for 501. Surfside 6—Rita Hammerstad on Carol's Business Service had the high game and series for the evening with 190 for 533. For the men, Bill Funk shot 203 for 569 and the high series with Carl Tunison on Fisher Realty shooting 207 for 543 and the high game.

Alleyholics—Bonnie Aarrberg rolling with Linda Mar Pharmacy shot 497 to tie for high series with Bernice Burns on Larry's Edgemar. Bernice also shot the high game, 188. Neptune's Daughters—Lois Talbot rolling with Ed's Union, had the high series with 516. The high game was rolled by Shirley Hensely with 198. Cocktail League—Slaves and Masters—Betty Thomas with Wisbey Realty had the high game for the ladies with a 202. Ginny Featherstone, bowling with Krake Construction Company, had the high series with a 538. Larry Hutchinson, also on Krake Construction, really must have been down on his knees when he put together games of 229-224-232 for a 685. J. C. and the gang would have shot a nice 800 if Al and Ginny hadn't missed the tenth frame.

SERRA BOWL

WITH THE winter leagues finishing their final rounds, bowlers have been bowling better than ever at Serra.

Boozer Mike Burnett shot 213—600 to lead his league. In the Jacks and Jills, Lois Dogget rolled 206 for high game and Ed Mudrick had high series for the evening with 555. Nite Owl George Cherolis shot 225—603 for top honors for the night. Majorette's Jean Hillman (192) and Jo Ann Harris (516) took highs in their league.

Mixed Master, Al Marko rolled 212—582 and in the Lutheran's League, C. Dougherty shot 226 for high game while Florence Adams had 579 for high series.

John Collondrez bowled 216 and Jim Hurst shot 573 in the Serra Farm Club. Sharpshooter Larry Kennedy had high game of 236 while Howie Bushway had the high series of 585. Dick Roddock shot 233—562 in Dick's Mixed Fives. Forrester Jim Christinsen rolled a beautiful 246—598. In the Unbowlables, Sid Yonoff came up with high game of the night with 210 and Gus Kireouplus had high series with 551.

Top bowler of the week was Ray Moore, who shot a terrific 255—659 in the 865 Scratch. Astronaut John Guerrettaz rolled 232—596 Thursday, and came back with a 602 Friday night in the Park Merced League. Bob Guillory had high game in the Park Merced with 214.

Al Chenowith took high game in the Fairs and Squares with 233 and George Shinazy had high series with 530. Tony Acosta shot 241—584 in the St. Francis League. Mel Gearhat had high game with 216 and Fred Hart the high series of 541 in Lynch Communications.

OPPOSITE OUTLOOKS

'Feast or Famine' in Daly City

Mound Mainstay

(This is the third in a series of North Peninsula League baseball teams and their prospects for the 1966 season.)

By JOHN HORGAN

BASEBALL PROSPECTS for the two Daly City high schools in the North Peninsula League in 1966 feature a "feast or famine" outlook.

One school, Jefferson, is eagerly looking for its first-ever NPL crown, while the other, Westmoor, is still mired in personnel problems.

Indian Coach Steve Mezzera has never won a league championship in his ten years at the helm of the Tribe. He feels that 1966 could be his year.

"If we can handle both El Camino and South San Francisco in our first two games, we can do it," said Mezzera last week. "We have been all over the standings since I've been here and this ought to be our year, for first. We won't ease up on anyone this year."

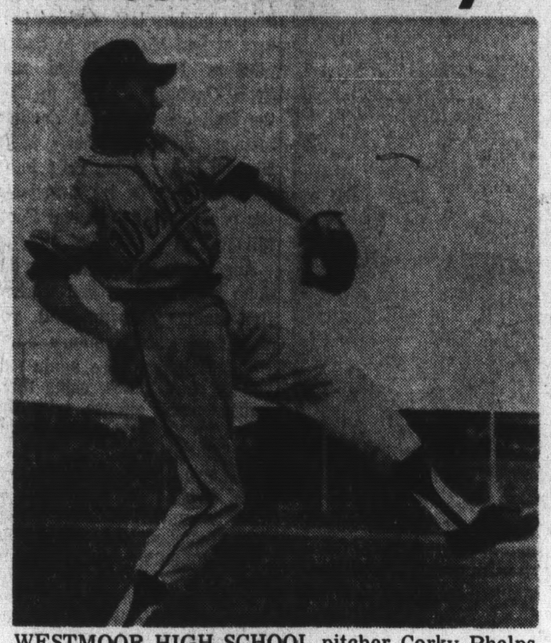
THE STORY at Westmoor is not quite so encouraging. Rod Losberger, the Rams' personable mentor, is worried. A variety of factors has caused him concern right up until the first league tilt.

First, injuries have plagued his club. "Since November, five of our players have been in casts," lamented Losberger. "The hurts had nothing to do with baseball. The boys just injured themselves in accidents of one kind or another."

Second, inexperience is a problem. Losberger has been starting an all-junior infield which has not jelled yet. Further, he lost much of last year's 5-5 NPL club, including T. J. Delbex, one of the outstanding multi-purpose players in the county last year.

Third, pitching depth is lacking. Only Corky Phelps, a senior right hander, is felt to be a front-line moundsman and even he did not hurl last year. He was a catcher.

"I have felt all along that the league will be one of the tighest we have ever had here," said Losberger. "I really thought we had a chance at the title, but a bad start has made it tough for us."



WESTMOOR HIGH SCHOOL pitcher Corky Phelps prepares to wheel in an offering during a practice session on the Rams' Daly City diamond. Phelps was Westmoor's catcher last year and is being counted on to be his club's top flinger this season. (Post-Times Photo)

THE RAMS' hitting has been woefully weak in the first weeks of the practice season. They went through 22 innings without scoring a run. Losberger hopes the drought will end in league play.

"With all the injuries, we have had to switch players around and this has hurt," explained the coach.

Grady Proctor, Paul Pucci and Greg Brenk support Phelps with the pitching. All are righthanders. Pucci is expected to develop into a good relief man.

Senior Lee Williams, whose right hand is in a cast, was figured to be the number one shortstop but his place has been taken by Joel Weinberg.

First base is held down by Practor when he isn't pitching or junior Greg Agar (who cut his hand in a shop class and won't be in full condition for another few weeks).

Ken Golzales is on second.

Rex Arnot is at third. He, too, is a junior.

In the outfield Losberger has Bob Gibbons, Karl Fleischauer, Al Mattson and Phelps when he isn't hurling.

Jeff Meitz, "the surprise of the team so far," is out four of five base stealers in a game with St. Ignatius two weeks ago.

LOSBERGER IS counting his blessings with the Easter vacation cutting into the NPL schedule. His club needs the time off to get healthy again.

"This siege of injuries at Westmoor this season has just been astounding," concluded the Ram leader.

BUT, IF Westmoor seems to have all the problems, Jefferson's case (much to the delight of Indian fans) is quite the opposite.

Mezzera's outfit seems to have everything necessary for a pennant: pitching, hitting, defense and experience.

The only key man lost from last year's second-place 7-3 NPL finisher for the Jeffs was Tolio Solaita who has since signed a contract with the Yankee organization.

Mezzera returns some outstanding talent: pitcher Tom Pritchard who was 6-1 on the season in 1965 and posted a 1.66 ERA; shortstop Al Namanny, one of the Ram catcher. He threw the better all-around athletes in the North County; Dan Caferetta and Pete Barry in the outfield; and first baseman Jerry Benson.

Along with this group, Mezzera can count on newcomers like second baseman George Egan, third baseman Jerry Dulay and Ted Shaddox, and pitcher Ron Mini.

MINI IN particular is slated for big things. "He ought to be able to hold his own in this league," stated his coach.

Other pitchers include Egan, Len Staff, Len Hatton and possibly Benson. All are right handers with the exception of Benson.

Bill Shelver, a good defensive man, will handle the catching chores. Don Hackett and John Cardinelli back him up.

Bob Bias and Otto Villias can play utility roles in the infield. Bias is a long-range hitter who might fit in somewhere in a first string capacity before the year is out.

Tolio's younger brother Peni is a utility infielder and will see some action at second.

"We know South San Francisco is rugged," explained Mezzera. "They are tough but we aren't afraid of them. We hope we can control their running game. We are definitely stronger than we were last year."

WITH TWO rounds of NPL play already under their belts, the two schools both have a game left on Friday before the Easter break.

Jefferson travels to Half Moon Bay and Westmoor will be at Oceana.

Lob Ball Loop Signups Start

Sign-ups are now being taken by the Daly City Recreation Department for all persons interested in participating in the 1966 Adult Lob Ball Leagues.

League play is open to everyone 18 years of age and older. Games will be played at Westmoor Park, Marchbanks Park, Westlake Park, Thomas Edison School and Jefferson High School.

A meeting will be held Wednesday, April 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Upstairs Room of the War Memorial Building, for all team managers or representatives.

The purpose of this meeting is to establish rules and regulations for the leagues. For further questions regarding the Lob Ball program, contact Mickey Corso, recreation supervisor, PL 5-0850.

Errors Betray Bulldog Club

The Colelge of San Mateo baseball team literally gave away second place in the Golden Gate Conference to City College of San Francisco last week.

The Bulldogs committeed six errors and gave up 10 walks as the Rams took a 5-1 decision over CSM on the CCSF diamond.

CSM's only run came in the top of the second inning when Brian Cute led off with a triple and then came home on Jim Kunst's sacrifice fly.

A single by CCSF's Ed Sickinger in the bottom of the fourth frame knocked in two runs and broke up a 1-1 deadlock.

The loss dropped the Bulldogs back into a third place tie with a 4-3 mark.

Baseball To Begin Soon

The Daly City Recreation Department is organizing its annual boys' baseball program which will open play on April 23.

Categories include: Junior league for eighth graders, intermediate league for seventh graders, and several classification of midget leagues for sixth graders and below.

To enter the leagues, interested persons need only contact the department.

There will be a $1 league fee and a $5 forfeit fee which is refundable if no games are forfeited during the season.

Teams are also required to share the cost of umpires.

Teams usually play at least a 15-game schedule.

At a later date the Farm Club league will be organized. Last year 13 teams entered this league for boys in the fifth grade and below category.

Ram Spikers Show Heels To S.S.F. Warriors

Herald won the two sprints and got the Rams' 880-yard relay team off to a 1:32.5 victory in that event as Westmoor defeated South San Francisco High School in a North Peninsula League dual meet opener last Friday at South San Francisco.

In two other NPL meets, El Camino High School nipped Jefferson, 63-59, and Oceana trimmed Terra Nova, 85-37.

Herald ran the opening leg of the relay ast he Rams posted one of the top times in the Bay Area. He also won the 100 in 10.1 and took the 220 in 23.0. It marked the fifth straight win for Westmoor.

Westmoor remained unbeaten in the class B and class C divisions. Frank DeStefano paced the victory by winning the 100 (10.6), the 220 and shotput. South San Francisco's Tony Anninos posted a triple in the class B division, winning both hurdle races and the broad jump.

Jefferson won nine of 14 varsity events and still lost as the Colts cashed in on team depth. El Camino's sweep in the shot was a big item.

Jefferson's Jasper Brown got a triple by winning the highs, the lows in an impressive 20.6 and the long jump. He also helped the relay team to victory. Jefferson's Jim Bruening won the 100 and 220 and ran a relay leg.

Dean Case and Steve Nichols sparked the El Camino victory with doubles. Case won the 880 and high jump, and Nichols took the shot and discus.

Lew Bronfeld, Karl Johnson and Ray Untalin led the way for Jefferson in the B division. Bronfeld won the 220 (24.4) and the 440 (55.8). Johnson took the highs (10.8) and lows (23.1) and the high jump (5-4). Untalin won the shot (44-8¾) and discus (120-1¾).

Henry Michon led Jefferson's victory in the C division by winning the 440 (58.4) and the long jump (17-1).

Oceana discovered just the thing for a dual track meet—a set of identical twins—in its NPL opener with Terra Nova.

Tim and Tom Sershen, a pair of sophomore twin brothers whose identity even baffles Coach Bill LaForge, led the Sharks to their overwhelming rout, scoring three firsts, two seconds, a third, and a winning relay leg between them.

Few good marks were posted in the cold, windy coastside meet, although Ken Peartree of Oceana won the 100 in 10.2 and Terra Nova's Bob Wimmer came through with a 12-6 mark in the pole vault.

Oceana slammed three events early in the meet en route to the victory.

Lectures Set

KARYL HOFF, star of "Once Over Nightly," is the first to sign up for a series of Friday night talks that Rex Golobic right, of Serra Bowl will give beginning Friday in the Stonestown auditorium at 7 p.m. The talks will include everything from fasihons to films.

GOOD SOPHS UPCOMING

Future Beckons HMB Baseballers

DON'T MENTION the euphamism "building year" to the coaching staff at Half Moon Bay High School.

In only its first year in the North Peninsula League the Cougar staff has already had its fill of the term. Still, trite though it may be, first-year baseball coach Harvey Koepf is involved in just that kind of season.

Lacking upper classmen, the Cougar baseball club is biding its time for 1967 and beyond with a crop of fine young freshment and sophomores who won't play on the varisty this year.

"We are down to only 12 players on the varisty now," said Koepf last week. "But we don't intend to bring up any players from the frosh-soph team."

In more ways than one it must be difficult for Koepf to resist the temptation. The feeling around the NPL is that Half Moon Bay's sophomore group is perhaps the best in the league.

"It's going to be awfully rough this year," commented the former Burlingame and minor league catcher. "Our practice record was only 1-4, with the win coming against Mitty of San Jose. I cut three lettermen because of attitude and this cut our team down even more."

"Last year our freshmen were 19-1. They were a well-balanced group and the frosh-soph team this year has six good freshmen. The future looks bright for us."

Gut 1966 is set to be a struggle.

LARRY ABBOTT, a right-handed pitcher, is the best chucker the Cugars have, according to Koepf. He is one of nine seniors on the team.

Multi-sport athlete Jimmy Tjogas is at shortstop; he might also do some pitching.

Experienced veterans Russ Truffa and Andy Havice will be in center field and at catcher, respectively.

At first base Koepf has Ray Vailla, a fine athlete and probably the best in the school according to his coaches.

Jim Francisco is on third. He is a transfer from Hillsdale.

In the outfield, along with Truffa, will go Bob St. Clair (no relation to the football palyer-politician) and Rich Deeney. Dale Ivan might also see some action there.

With Abbott and Tjogas on the mound will go Ted Hoffman. All three flingers are right-handed.

KOEPF'S MAIN problem, as it is with the rest of the Cougars' sports plans, is that the athletes don't have an extensive background in the sport.

"We are very inexperienced in baseball here," Koepf said. "The city has a Little League program now and this is going to help out a lot in the future. The present freshmen and sophomores are products of the league and they show it."

Half Moon Bay was 10-5 last year and finished second in the Bay Counties Leabue to champ Menlo School. The Dougar league mark was 6-2.

If the sophomores and freshmen are as good as the coaches think they might be, these seemingly endless "building years" ought to be close to being finished.

Ex-Padre Is Loser Versus Noce's Club

It was just like a re-union day for former Serra High School hurlers last week at College of San Mateo, as ex-Padre pitchers Norm Angelini and Fred Caviglia teamed up for the Bulldogs to defeat another former Serra pitcher, Mike Noonan, 4-3, moving CSM into second place tie by surprising the previously undefeated Foothill Owls.

Angelini started for Coach John Noce's crew, and worked five innings of no-hit ball, yet trailed after seven innings, 3-1.

The Bulldogs once again rallied for key tallies, using their famous no-hit offense, tying the game in the seventh and winning it in the eighth.

Jim Kunst started off the seventh, getting on by virtue of third baseman Bill Lerch's miscue, advanced to second on an infield single by Jerry Sullivan, went to third on a sacrifice by Bob Burrill, and scored ahead of pinch-runner Walt Lembi on another error by Lerch.

The Bulldogs won it in the eighth when big Chuck Chase crashed his second homer of the year, giving Caviglia his first GGC win.

For ex-Pad Noonan it was a tough defeat, as the Foothill Owl limited CSM to just three hits, only one in the first seven frames.

Cap Nipped By Pads, 2-1

The Serra High School baseball team combined raw power and pitching finesse to send Capuchino down to defeat in a practice game, 2-1, on the loser's diamond last week.

Steve Isoardi of Serra belted the second pitch of the ball game into deep left center to give Serra a 1-0 lead. Moments later, Hal Petrocchi duplicated the feat, giving Serra a 2-0 advantage in the first inning.

Cap picked up its lone run in the bottom of the fifth inning when Jerry Neary scored on Mike Costanzo's single.

Bill Bailey set the Mustangs down on three hits while striking out six batters. Cap's Roger Carmine also pitched a creditable game, yielding only five hits. It was Serra's fourth straight win.

Westlake Kegler Rolls a 633

Last Wednesday was a banner day for Thelma Stetz of the Morning Glories League at Westlake Bowl as she set a new high series for daytime bowlers with a tremendous 633.

Although her average is 166, Thelma started with 181, followed it with a great 232 game and finished with a strong 220. This is the highest series of the daytime leagues since the opening of Westlake Bowl over seven years ago.

Cap Mermen Are Routed

And, evidently, the coach knew what he was doing.

Paced by two firsts from John Mills, Hillsdale scored a 59-36 triumph over the Mustangs, the unbeaten Knights' third straight in league competition.

Hillsdale's winning time of 1:48.6 in the 200 medley relay was one of the best in San Mateo County this season.

KEEP GOOD GOVERNMENT IN DALY CITY

The DALY CITY GOOD GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE, a volunteer organization composed of interested citizens of Daly City desiring by their combined efforts to promote and encourage efficient government in Daly City.

After a careful review of the operation of Daly City government during the past four years, the volunteer committee came to these conclusions:

★ The conduct and operation of both the Police and Fire Departments is on a high level of efficiency.

★ Within the past four years several hundred thousands of dollars have been spent on improvement of water facilities without incurring debt.

★ In similar fashion sums of money have been spent for the improvement and increased capacity of sanitation facilities without debt.

★ Provisions for the construction of a civic center, a 10-million gallon reservoir and additional pumping facilities for the Water Department are under way and in the process of completion.

★ In the overall picture, while the substantial improvements have been undertaken, they have been accomplished with a LEVEL TAX RATE.

Therefore, the members of the DALY CITY GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE unhesitatingly endorse.

Ex-Westmoor Vaulter Hits 15-7 in Meet

The College of San Mateo's cinder fortunes continued their downward trend yesterday, despite a sterling performance by ex-Westmoor pole vaulter Dennis Phillips.

Contra Costa College, getting away fast on some disputed runs, downed the Bulldogs, 75-61, on the El Cerito High School oval last week.

But the outstanding performance of the day, even overshadowing Rickey Rogers' four first places, was Phillips' 15-7 leap in the pole vault.

The effort, on the warm sunny day, was the third best in junior college history, only topped by Bob Seagren's 16-4 at Mt. San Antonio and Fullerton JC's Rick Sloan's 15-9½.

CSM Coach John Barnes was very disappointed in the officiating as Contra Costa runners jumped the gun several times with no restarts called. After it was evident that the Comets were going to win, Barnes pulled the crack CSM relay team to rest them for tomorrow's Santa Barbara Relays.

Rogers was a one-man show for the Comets, capturing the 120 high hurdles in a blazing 14.7 seconds; winning the long jump; taking the 330 intermediate hurdles, and grabbing the triple jump.

Cap Track Team Beats Crestmoor

With the Mid-Peninsula League track season only one week old, Capuchino runs into showdown time next week.

The Mustangs, who whipped Crestmoor last week in their opening meet, 76½-44½, must face Burlingame, tied for first with the Mustangs in the MPL. It could prove a formidable stumbling block for Coach Vince Marchi's crew, who the mentor says, "is hurting."

"We've been hit hard by measles and other ailments," he moaned, knowing that to decision either of these teams would take a full squad effort.

In last week's varsity meet, the 'Tangs were paced by Tom Garban, who took second in both the 220 and the 440, as well as being the anchor man on the winning relay team, and Larry Wright, who placed in three events as well as being on the relay squad.

For the Falcons, John Schuller provided their spark, winning the high hurdles, the low hurdles in addition to taking the high jump.

Cap also walked away with the Class B meet, 99-19, with Roy Martinez showing the way with a triple win. He took the 220, the broad jump and tied the school "B" record by winning the 100 in 10.6.

Easter Tourney Begins in D.C.

The Annual Daly City Easter Baseball Tournament, sponsored by the Police Athletic League and the Daly City Recreation Department, has started on diamonds in the city.

The tournament features some of the area's top-notch sicth, seventh and eighth grade baseball teams.

Tournament action began on Monday, and will run through April 7.

Rained out games will be made up on April 9.

When mama changes to the Passover dishes, Barton's changes to Passover candy. כשר לפסח

Passover Favorites: parve or milk and bitter sweet chocolates; filled with cremes, truffles, nuts, exotic cordials. 1 lb. assortment, $2.39. Plus other wonderful Passover candies and cookies.

What mama does, Barton's does.

For 7 days and 7 nights, all baking and candy-making stops.

Leavening agents, non-Passover candy and cake and unused ingredients are cleared out of the Barton's kitchens.

As are the pots, vats, scoops, ladles, baking pans, all the machinery that isn't nailed down.

What is nailed down is seared by blowtorches. And the walls, ceilings and floors are hosed down with live steam.

Louanne's Datebook

By LOUANNE HEATH

"WE NEED BOOKS, and books and more books, is the gist of a plea issued this past week by Mrs. Hal Fox, publicity chairman for the Daly City Friends of the Library.

The Friends are in the throes of preparation for their annual Book Fair, to be held in the Westlake Shopping Center mall April 16, and the members of the fair committee are determined to make this the biggest and best of the benefits to date.

For the uninitiated, the fair is staged to raise money for the three branches of the Daly City library. It offers localities an unequaled opportunity restock their home libraries with material to fit almost any literary taste.

According to Mrs. Fox, boxes, delightfully decorated by the fair chairman, Mrs. Lincoln Walters, and her husband have been placed in firehouses at 151 Lake Merced Boulevard, 499 Santa Barbara Avenue, 3001 Geneva Avenue, 181 Edgemont Drive and 884 King Drive. Any housewife wishing to clean off the book shelves in her home may take used volumes to those locations.

The committee is collecting paper back editions as well as hard cover novels, reference books, autobiographies, text books of any type, children's books and phonograph records. Mrs. Walters and Mrs. June St. Peter, Mrs. Julian Cohn and Mrs. U. R. Kendree, all members of the executive board of the Friends of the Library, are sorting and pricing the books as they are collected.

Mrs. Fox noted that the mechanics of presenting the sale are arduous and there is an appeal being issued for volunteers to assist with any of the detail work. Persons wishing to offer assistance should leave their names and phone numbers with their nearest librarian.

THE JUDAEO-CHRISTIAN Brotherhood and the South of Mt. Davidson Ministerial Alliance will present a panel-seminar, entitled "Does Civil Disobedience and Demonstration Lead Toward Anarchy or to Greater Social Justice?" April 13 at 7 p.m. in Temple Baptist Church, 3355 Nineteenth Avenue, according to publicity man John Keast.

According to Keast, the public is invited to the meeting, which will be free, to hear a panel of distinguished Bay Area intellectuals present their views. The members of the audience will be invited to challenge or discuss the opinions offered, Keast said.

OFF TO VISIT the southwest on a trip that is bound to combine pleasure with business is Bill Wagner of Daly City.

Wagner is a member of the musical group that tours with TV's King Family and he will be appearing with them during a one-week engagement in Phoenix. Wagner, who plays regularly with Del Courtney at all the Giant ball games in Candlestick Park, has already announced he will take advantage of the proximity of the Giants' training camp to appraise their chances of taking a pennant this year.

HOME FROM a jaunt that took her to Florida and Chicago is Mrs. Edith Barker of Westlake.

THE MEMBERS of the Nu Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were the guests of Eta Gamma Chapter at a Banco party in San Bruno recently, according to word from Mrs. Marty Sugrue, publicity chairman.

The local chapter will meet again next Thursday in the home of Mrs. Frank Greer. Mrs. Thomas Eichener and Mrs. Frank Noonan will present a "cultural" for the evening on the subject of nature.

THE WOMEN'S Association of Lakeside Presbyterian Church, 19th Avenue and Eucalyptus Drive, San Francisco, will hold its annual spring dessert tea Thursday, April 14 at 12:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Richard J. Nasser, publicity chairman for the event.

Speaking from the rostrum to be set amid a profusion of spring flowers, will be William Elsner, curator of the Museum of Sciences, the Palace of the Legion of Honor. Elsner has selected for his topic, "Great Christian Art of the First Millenium as Depicted by Mosaics and Frescos."

Mrs. Nasser adds that the afternoon will also include marimba music by William Hurtado and solos by soprano LaVerne Apkarian.

Reservations are available to anyone contacting Mrs. Helen Dean, 586-6278. A donation of $1 is requested, Mrs. Nasser said.

THE LATIN WOMEN of America have announced that the location of the tea honoring Mrs. Edmond G. Brown, previously announced for April 19 in the Canterbury Hotel, has been changed to the Fern Court of the San Francisco Merchandise Mart.

According to Mrs. Bette Garcia, publicity chairman, all other particulars will remain the same.

MEMBERS OF the Westmoor High School Dance Band are being honored this week as a result of their fine performance at the band competition held at the University of Nevada in Reno.

HOWARD LOEFFLER, music instructor at Westmoor, and 20 of the band members bussed to Nevada for the competition and walked off with honorable mention in competition with 40 schools from five western states.

Enjoying the outing as much as the youngsters and easily as proud of their win were the chaperones, Mrs. Herbert Decker, Mrs. Brad Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reter.

Members of the Westlake Senior Citizens Club will spend next Tuesday in the State Capital, touring the Campbell Soup plant, Sutter's Fort and the State Indian Museum as well as the Capitol building.

On Wednesday, back home and in business in their usual stand—the social hall of the Westlake Community Baptist Church—the club will hold its annual Easter Hat Parade along with the launching of the spring apron sale.

Over 50 different types of aprons will be displayed on sale tables and members of the community are urged to drop by between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. any Wednesday and purchase one of the hand-made "kitchen costumes."

MRS. ELAINE FRAYES will chair a booth, selling coffee, doughnuts and sandwiches, at the Holy Angels Parish Spring Festival, according to Mrs. Frank Murphy.

The Crusade Against Cancer

Sugar... 'n' Spice

By NELL NORTON

AS YOU CAN see from the contents of the columns recently, I've been busy baking goodies. This has been fun for me for my family loves the interesting and tasty results of all this activity. But it is rather difficult for the baker who's supposed to be on a diet. Ah well, this is one sacrifice I really enjoy making for my family.

Some wonderful recipies for cookies came my way and they all turned out so well I want to pass them on to you good cooks.

This first recipe is certainly new, for it won a prize in the 15th Grand National Bake-Off. This is called a cake, but it slices into delicious little cakes that travel nicely in lunches, just like cookies.

CINNAMON TOAST CAKE

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
2 Tablespoons butter, melted
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup raisins

Sift together the flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Blend in the melted butter, milk and vanilla. Lastly add the raisins and mix well.

Pour into a well greased and lightly floured jelly roll pan 15 x 10 x 1-inch and bake in 350-degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from oven and top with the following.

TOPPING

½ cup butter, melted
½ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons cinnamon

Combine the sugar and melted butter. Drizzle over the cake and sprinkle with cinnamon. Return to the oven and bake 10 minutes longer.

NOTE: If you don't have 15x10x1-inch pan, make one from heavy foil. Place on a cookie sheet.

☆ ☆ ☆

THIS NEXT RECIPE makes a very rich and elegant cookie. Since we love cheese cake these made a great hit in my family. Mrs. Nonie Cannon who lives in Los Angeles sent this recipe along, and it's wonderful.

CHEESE CAKE COOKIES

One-third cup butter
One-third cup brown sugar
1 cup flour
½ cup chopped nuts
¼ cup granulated sugar
1 8 oz. package cream cheese
1 egg
2 tablespoons milk
1 Tablespoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 Tablespoon Milk

Cream the butter and brown sugar. (Remember when you measure brown sugar, you pack it down into the cup) until light and fluffy.

Add the flour and chopped nuts and blend until the mixture resembles crumbs. Set aside one cup.

Press remainder of mixture into an eight-inch square pan. Bake in a 350-degree oven for 12 to 15 minutes or until a golden brown. Remove from oven and set aside while you make the filling.

Combine granulated sugar and cream cheese and beat until smooth. Add egg, milk, lemon juice and vanilla and beat well. Spread over baked crust. Sprinkle reserved crumbs over the top and return to oven and bake for 25 minutes longer.

Cool and cut into bars. Store in refrigerator.

BROWNIES ARE a favorite with me. Both girls and cookies. And they are also favorites of my friend Mrs. Barbara Johnson who lives at 1943-47th Avenue in San Francisco. When it's time for her little Brownie, Ellen, to provide treats for her troop, the following recipe fills the bill perfectly.

BARBARA'S BROWNIES

1 cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup cocoa
1 cup shortening
2 cups sugar
4 eggs, well beaten
2 teaspoons vanilla
2 cups coarsely chopped nuts

Sift flour, measure and sift again with salt. Melt shortening and cocoa in a large saucepan, add sugar and beat well. Next add the well-beaten eggs and mix. Blend in the flour and salt and mix thoroughly.

Lastly add vanilla and nut meats. Spread in greased 8-inch square pans and bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) for 30 minutes. This makes 48 large brownies. And an equal number of happy Brownies.

Brittle Players to Offer 'You Gotta Have Dirt'

An original three-act comedy with music will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings, April 15 and 16, at Broadmoor Presbyterian Church.

Entitled, "You Gotta Have Dirt," the play is a sequel to "Dear Ole Colma," performed locally some five years ago by the same company — the Broadmoor Brittle Players. Curtain time is 7:30 p.m.

The cast is made up of Broadmoor Presbyterian Church members, with one exception, and consists of 15 performers—10 of whom are choir singers.

With a Daly City-Colma locale, "You Gotta Have Dirt" relates the story of Dad Gumm, a former Colma farmer, who has lived for 10 years in Daly City "where they got concrete streets," and who now longs for his simpler, productive life on a Colma farm.

Together they determine that Dad should, indeed, return to the soil. Recreating his part of Dad Gumm is Del Severy, music director at Broadmoor Presbyterian. Snuffles and Mudpie are played by Tim Tweedie and Dave Wholton.

Charlotte Spruiell once again dons the apron of Bubble Gumm, Dad's wife, with daughter Tender, played by Kay Mattson. Other veterans of "Dear Ole Colma" are Jollie Ollie, mammoth tract builder, and Tellem and Sellem McGuire, ace salesmen, performed by Collins Orton and Ken Gillespie.

The cast includes Darwen Hennings, Elaine Lainge, Perky and Bunny Gillespie, Dorothy Spratt, Jim Tweedie, Shirley Pappas, and Bernice Hamilton.

Accompanist for 14 musical numbers will be Cathy Leech. Ticket donations in the amounts of $1 for adults and 50 cents for children through age 12 will be accepted at the church office at 377 Eighty-seventh Street, Daly City, 755-0597.

Dear Councilman Wilson:

I wish to express my sincere appreciation, as well as the committee and the Westlake Improvement Association, for convincing Governor Knight of the hazard that now exists on Westmoor Skyline and Westridge Skyline. Our promise to the people of Westlake to fight and get the needed protection for their children at these dangerous intersections has now been fulfilled.

We hope that you will continue to attend our meetings, as you are always welcome.

Please know that your efforts are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Celebration Of Passover Is Planned

Passover, the Jewish festival commemorating the deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt, will be observed by the Jewish people throughout the world beginning Monday evening at sunset. Congregation B'nai Israel will observe the holiday with a Passover Sabbath on Friday evening, at 8:15, and on Saturday morning, at 10 a.m.

On Tuesday evening, B'nai Israel will hold a second Sedar at the templehouse with services conducted by Rabbi Solomon A. Shore and a complete traditional kosher meal will be served featuring all symbolic foods.

Cost is $12.50 per couple for adults and $3.50 for children under 12.

Reservations must be made and for information and reservations, please call PL 5-8926.

A "model" Seder will be held for the children of the Sunday school on Sunday moring, at 10.

Rabbi Shore will read portions of the Haggadah and symbolic foods will be shown and served to the children.

Novitiate Plans Reviewed

INSPECTING plans for a proposed novitiate in Marin County are, left to right, Sister Henry, Rev. Mother Consilia and Sister Attracta of Holy Infant of Jesus Order at Holy Angels Church in Colma. Other members of the order are at St. Veronica's Church i nSouth San Francisco and in Healdsburg. Nuns are contributing most of their monthly salary to buy land for the novitiate and erect a building. In addition, fund-raising programs are held by church groups. Holy Angels will hold a fund-raising festival May 7 on the school grounds.

2 Services Are Slated At Broadmoor

Palm Sunday will be observed Sunday at Broadmoor Presbyterian Church at 377 Eighty-seventh Street in Daly City.

The sermon subject will be "Welcoming the King of Kings." The Rev. Herbert Tweedie, pastor, will preach. The youth chapel choir will sing at a 9:30 a.m. service and the chancel choir will sing at an 11 a.m. service.

The solo, "The Palms," will be sung by Kay Mattson. The music director is Del Severy and the organist is Jim Whitlow. Infants and children will be baptised at both services.

Infant care will be provided for those attending the services and the two sessions of Sunday School.

The annual Palm Sunday men's breakfast will be held at 7:30 a.m. Chairman William Powers will preside. The Rev. Clifford Droke will be the speakers. Charters for two church scouting unit will be presented.

Church Plans Easter Fete

Members of the Walther League, the congregations's yough group, will serve a traditional Easter breakfast in the council room of Hope Lutheran Church 55 San Fernando Way, Daly City, on Easter Sunday, from 7 to 11 a.m. According to League President David Polster, the menu will include fruit juice, scrambled eggs, ham, rolls and beverage.

Tickets for the breakfast are available from league members after each service at the church until Easter, at a cost of $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children.

North County Churches Combine Mission Service

The Millbrae Baptist Church and the Cedar Avenue Baptist Church of San Bruno will jointly participate in a nine-day missionary conference with nine missionaries from world-wide fields.

Starting Saturday with a unified meeting of high schoolers and young people in the Beckner Shelter in San Bruno Park, and continuing through Easter Sunday April 10.

Most missionaries will be speaking at least twice in each church and many of them will be showing film of their work along with displays of items brought from the fields.

The theme of the conference will be "Unto All the World a Risen Saviour." The purpose of the conference will be to present missions, missionary needs, and a missionary challenge to the two congregations.

Both churches are in a program of enlarging their missionary participation. Some of the mission boards to be represented will be New Tribes Mission, Latin America Mission, the Evangelical Alliance Mission, Wycliffe Translators, etc.

Everyone is invited to the services. Anyone desiring a bulletin please call either church.

Rev. Neil Ashcraft is pastor of the Millbrae Baptist Church, and John W. Peters is pastor of the Cedar Avenue Baptist Church.

One of the missionaries participating in the conference will be Richard Elkins from West Pakistan.

Elkins has headed up the work as principal of the language school in Murree, in the northern hills area.

Sale of Food To Be Ended

The Sisterhood of Congregation B'nai Israel is completing its annual sale of Passover foods.

A complete selection is available. Orders will be given prompt attention by calling the sale chairman, Gary Kroner, at PL 5-8926. Selections also can be made at the temple at 1575 Annie Street, Colma, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4 to 6 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

All profits from this sale go to the temple Sunday School.

Traveler To Show Slides

Mrs. Luella Wagner will be a guest speaker at 7 p.m. Monday at Bethel Church of Pacifica.

Mrs. Wagner, a fifth grade teacher in Downey, Calif., and a member of the Assembly of God Church in Maywood, Calif., has returned from a trip through the Holy Land.

She will present slides taken on the trip and discuss places she visited. She will tell of spending Christmas Day in Bethlehem.

Congregation Meet Planned

Friday, evening, the fourth annual congregational business meeting of the Westside Baptist Church will be held. The meeting this year will be held at the Community Methoodist Church in San Bruno

The evening will begin with a banquet, served by the ladies of the Methodist Church.

Following the dinner, special music by an instrumental ensemble and the Westside Male Quartette will entertain those present.

Alton Swedberg will lead in singing of several favorite hymns. Special guest speaker will be Rev. Eric Lindholm, pastor of the Lakeside Baptist Church, 1515 Third Avenue, Oakland. The Lakeside Church is the oldest Conference Baptist Church in California.

'Decision Day' Is Scheduled

Palm Sunday will be "Decision Day" at the First Baptist Church of Pacifica at 610 Edgemar Avenue.

A number of people will be accepted into membership.

A special service will be held by the Rev. Charles F. Arnold in recognition of Palm Sunday and of the new members.

4 Morning Services To Be Conducted

Four Easter morning services are scheduled at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church in South San Francisco.

A sunrise service at 5:42 a.m. will use trumpets, organ and choral music.

The trumpeter will be Royce Tevis, organist will be Mrs. Irvin Tweet, and choir leader will be Robert Hall.

Fifteen teen-agers will serve as readers of a resurrection story and assist in a procession with flowers into the sanctuary chancel.

A "koffee klotch" of coffee, cake and orange juice will be served the Sunrise audience.

Three festival services, at 8:30, 9:45 and 11 a.m., will high light the schedule of worship hours planned for Easter Day. Three choirs will sing. Pastor Tweet will preach on the topic: "Put That Light On!"

Children of the Sunday School will receive baptism at the 9:45 a.m. service. Parents are invited to attend with the Sunday School children.

Palm Sunday Service Set

Palm Sunday services will be held at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Fairmont of Pacifica, this Sunday at 9 and 11 a.m.

Rev. George S. Johnson, will preach on "Forgiven, But Why?"

The chancel choir, under the direction of Howard Loeffler will sing "Salvation Is Created."

The high school young people of Bethlehem Lutheran will meet at the church at 6 p.m. on Saturday, to go ice skating. President Steele Spengler invites all high school youth to feel welcome to attend.

On April 4 to 5, the seventh and eighth graders will take a trip to the Santa Cruz Mountains to visit Mt. Cross Bible camp. Pastor Johnson will accompany them on this over night trip.

Communion Is Set At Temple Judea

Services for Holy Week at Our Redeemer's Church in South San Francisco include Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday, at 7:45 p.m., and two Good Friday Services. One is a daytime service scheduled at 1 p.m. with a visual presentation of the trial and suffering of Jesus Christ.

Taking part in the presentation are Mrs. Elmer Laursen, Mrs. William Harter, Mrs. Charles Hansen, Mrs. Robert Hall, and Mrs. Irvin Tweet. The service will conclude with the veiling of a cross.

Palm Sunday Ceremony Is Planned By Lutheran Unit

Palm Sunday will be observed with two services at Bethel Lutheran Church, 2525 Alemany Boulevard.

The first service will be conducted at 8 a.m. The sacred Rite of Confirmation will be observed in the second service at 10:45 a.m.

The following will be received into the membership of the Lutheran Church: Christine Aissa, Nancy Brooks, Dianne Lovaasen, Linda Rieschel, Ina Schneider, Sandra Suhr, Lawrence Tenorio and Carolyn Wilson.

Included in the class are the following who are residents of Daly City: Judy Ansaldo, Gary Bender, Bruce Bjoring, James Boyd, Karen Kim, Christine Martell, Rudy Martell and Allen Stewart. Also, David Percy and Douglas Paterson, who are residents of South San Francisco.

Special music will be offered by the Junior Choir and ladies from the Senior Choir, with Mrs. Dale McKinney serving as descant soloist.

Mrs. Abel Fabela is the accompanist and the organist. The Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will conduct the Rite of Confirmation, and also deliver the sermon.

The members of the confirmation class will partake of the Sacrament of Holy Communion together with the congregation on Good Friday evening at 7:30.

Temple Judea Members Fly To S. Cal

Members of Temple Judea's high school will be flying down to Wilshire Boulevard Temple in Los Angeles this weekend on a reciprocal visit to Los Angeles.

While there, the students and their teacher, Alvin Wolf of San Francisco, will stay at the homes of the students of the Los Angeles Temple.

A Wilshire Boulevard group visited San Francisco in December and together with Temple Judea's high school students, toured the Bay Area.

On Sunday, Passover Model Seders will be held in the classes of Temple Judea's religious school. Refreshments will be provided and a father of one of the students from each class will conduct the Seder.

The Bar Mitzvah of Guy Segal, son of Philip Segal and Mrs. Gordon Allen, will take place Friday at the Temple on Brotherhood Way. Services begin at 8:30 p.m.

Bethel Youth To Wash Cars

The Christ Ambassadors, Bethel Church's youth group, will sponsor a car wash from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. It will be held at the Richfield gas station on Crespi Drive, next to the Central Food Market in Linda Mar. The price will be $1.

The Christ Ambassadors meet each Sunday night at 6:30 in the church at Higgins Way and Adobe Drive in Linda Mar.

MINCED PEPPERS

Ever add minced green pepper along with minced onion to that ground beef you are making into hamburgers? This combination is excellent served with hot catchup.

Baptists To Hear Talks

Rev. Richard L. Owen of Pacifica will hold meetings at First Baptist Church in Daly City each night at 7:30 from Sunday to April 10.

His subjects will be the "Seven Last Sayings of Christ."

Special music will be provided each night. Reverend Owen will also preach at the 1 p.m. service on Good Friday. His topic then will be "When and Why Was Christ Crucified."

Methods Of Choosing A Name Aired

Methods of choosing names of new scholls caused a brief flurry of suggestions at a Jefferson Elementary School District board meeting.

Chairman Thomas Noonan recommended a committee of 15 to pass on suggestions submitted by school children. Each trustee could name three committee members, he proposed.

Trustee O. Wayne Douglas, on the other hand, said he thought five members would be sufficient for such a committee.

He added that they might include such people as the mayor and the architect who designed the school in question.

The architect, Douglas ventured, might be persuaded to donate a $25 savings bond as a prize for the winning suggestions.

Trustee Joseph Lewkowitz said he thought the citizens in the immediate area of a new school should have some say in its naming.

The could narrow the selection to three for final choice by the board, he proposed.

Fill Line Is Urged For the Bay

The general membership of the San Mateo County Regional Planning Committee last week voted to recommend that the Executive Committee appoint a new body to review fills and to work toward establishing a fill line in San Francisco Bay.

The new body would be charged with considering major developments such as International Airport, to develop standards for waterways and waterfront development, and to work with transportation groups to review and evaluate freeway proposals.

The action came in the wake of a nine-city vote recommending that the Board of Supervisors remove reference to a Bayfront freeway on all city, county and state plans.

Representatives of the cities of Belmont, Brisbane, Burlingame, Daly City, Half Moon Bay, Menlo Park, Portola Valley, San Carlos, and San Mateo endorsed a statement drawn up by the Bayfront Study Committee that termed any freeway in the Bay and adjacent fill as "undesirable."

Opposed to this position were the cities of Millbrae, Redwood City, San Bruno, and the County of San Mateo represented by Supervisor Jean Fassler.

Absent and not casting votes were the cities of Atherton, Colma, Hillsborough, South San Francisco, Woodside, and Pacifica.

D.C. Youth Is Named To Dean's List

Charles Terry of Daly City has been named to the Deans' list at Golden Gate College for the fall, 1965, semester, it was announced by Dr. Russell T. Sharpe, president.

Terry is a senior studying for his B.A. degree in Management. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Terry.

To qualify for the Deans' list in any semester at Golden Gate College, students must maintain a B-plus or higher average for all courses taken during that semester.

Tax Refund Answers

"When will I get my refund?" is one of the questions most frequently asked by taxpayers, said Joseph M. Cullen,, District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern California.

Cullen stated that refund checks can be expected about six weeks after the return has been mailed.

However, those who wait until April may have to wait longer for their refunds. He added that thousands of refund checks are returned to Internal Revenue every year because the postman cannot deliver them.

To avoid this happening to a check, use the pre-addressed return sent by the Service Center or print or type name and address carefully on the top of the return, including the social security number.

Cullen advised taxpayers: "If you move after you file your return, leave your forwarding address with the post office. It is also a good idea to send your new address to the Internal Revenue Service."

Fashions of Today . . .

WHILE shoppers look on approvingly the latest in spring styles are modeled by Terri Lynn Ruef, left, and Pat Georgakas in the Westlake Shopping Center's annual spring fashion show. Terri Lynn is wearing a dacron and cotton permanent pleated dress with set-in lace yoke and Peter Pan Collar. She represented the Lass and Laddie Shop. Pat is wearing a butte knit three-piece wool spring suit, with an umbrella skirt and belted jacket. She represented H. H. Liebes. Show drew more than 1,500 spectators Saturday afternoon in the Center's mall. (Post-Times Photo)

. . . and Yesterday

Youngsters Crawl in, Out Of Ice Vending Machine

Two Daly City youngsters got a verbal spanking from police and the real thing at home Saturday afternoon after they crawled in and out of an ice vending machine on Geneva Avenue.

The youngsters, Kenneth Humbach, 9, and Carol Humbach, 6, of 24 Battleship Road, were spotted crawling into the machine by a fireman at Daly City's Bayshore Fire Station, across Geneva from the machine.

The fireman notified police and when the youngsters crawled out, they were greeted by Patrolman Craig Martini.

The brother and sister were cold but not hurt, their mother, Mrs. Lowell Humbach, reported later. She said her children had crawled into the machine after hearing of others who had done the same.

"I don't know how those things work but the children might have been hurt if someone had put some money in while they were there. They could have been hit on the head with a block of ice," she added.

Tax Measure Introduced

Senator Richard J. Dolwig of San Mateo County has introduced a Senate Constitutional Amendment which, if passed, would give drastic property tax reductions to citizens over 65 years of age.

Senator Dolwig's measure would allow a $16,000 tax exemption on property used exclusively for one year as a residence, owned by a person of 65 years or more who has been a resident of California for a minimum of ten years.

The measure also provides for joint tenancy by granting an additional $16,000 for a spouse who is also over 65—or a total of $32,000.

Rec Department Sets Chess Play

The Daly City Recreation Department will get-togethers for chess players from 8 to 11 p.m. at the Westmoor Park Clubhouse every Monday night beginning this week.

D.C. Marine Gets Transfer

Marine Staff Sergeant James H. Garbrick, Marine recruiter at the Daly City Recruiting Substation, has been selected for commissioning as a second lieutenant, according to information received from headquarters, Marine Corps in Washington.

Sergeant Garbrick, assigned to the Marine Recruiting Service in August, 1965, resides with his wife Susan and their two children at 467 Ferndale Avenue, South San Francisco.

Sergeant Garbrick will soon be transferred to the Officer Candidate School, Quantico, Virginia, where he will undergo officer training with hundreds of other former noncommissioned officers who were selected for a commission in the Marine Corps Officer-Warrant Officer programs which are available to all Marine Corps NCOs.

Applications Readied For Youth Camp

Pacifica boys between the ages of seven and 16 years may rollment applications for Camp Mendocino, the 2,000-acre Redwood campsite of the Boys' Club.

The new campaign headquarters for a Pacifica Boys' Club is located across the street from the Pacifica Post Office in Pacific Manor.

A fund raising campaign is now underway to raise $90,000 for a Boys' Club in Pacifica to be located on a three and one-half acre lot donated by Challenge Development Company in Linda Mar. The anticipated clubhouse will serve over 1,000 boys and include a woodshop, arts and crafts, gym, and library.

Roland Terry, president of the Pacifica Boys' Club and Albert Tedbaldi, chairman of the Advance Gifts Committee, said that the fund drive has taken a "giant step toward success" with the donation of $500 from Nick Gust, local restaurateur last week.

Rene Isler, who is handling the fund drive, said that pledges can be made over a three-year period.

'Boys' Life' Celebrates 55th Year

"Boys' Life," the largest single youth magazine in the world and the official magazine for boys published by the Boy Scouts of America, is celebrating its 55th anniversary with a fresh look from cover to cover, according to Victor W. Jensen, San Mateo County Council staff representative.

This month's issue is the start of a long-range plan to give the magazine a huskier and bolder look with new features on science, automobiles and outdoor sports.

Top authors such as Ken Purdy, Ted Williams and MacKinlay Kantor, a Pulitzer Prize winner, will be among those featured under the new format.

Almost 7,000 San Mateo County youths read "Boys' Life" which ranks 18th in the nation with 7,000,000 readers. Robert Hood of New Brunswick, N.J., has been editor since 1964.

The new look, according to Hood is "a continuance of our philosophy to set high standards of literature and graphics for boys of a young age to acquaint them with the best in print so they will accept nothing less at an older age."

Jack Russell of Belmont is San Mateo County Council "Boys' Life" promotion chairman.

The magazine is available to the public as well as Boy Scouts at many magazine stands in the county and at the Scouting Center, 1300 South Bayshore Boulevard, San Mateo.

Transient Is Hit By Auto

A 64-year-old transient was struck by a car and knocked seven-feet Wednesday night in an accident on Bayshore Boulevard in Brisbane.

He was reported in good condition at County Hospital in San Mateo.

Officers said Steven Leslie Hatch was attempting to cross the highway more than 300-feet from the nearest intersection.

The driver of the station wagon which hit Hatch, Ivan Hopla, 32, of Redwood City, said he saw the older man standing in the center of the highway and assumed he would wait there.

Health Aides Mull Effects Of Medicare in County

Various alternatives to cope with the as-yet unknown effects of the Medicare program in San Mateo County were discussed in a three-hour session by County Manager E. R. Stallings and Dr. H. D. Chope, director of Health and Welfare last week.

Stallings said a presentation on Medicare is scheduled to be made to the Board of Supervisors April 15.

"By that time, we hope to have arrived at an approach that is acceptable to the county's medical profession as well as to the hospital executive committee and staff," Stallings said in a press conference.

"We don't know which way to go, because we don't really know what's going to happen," he said, expressing the county dilemma in a nutshell.

Under consideration, he said, is a trust fund for doctors to take care of all billing and distribution. This fund would be a way for the county to recover salaries of chiefs of staff which are not presently built into the hospital rate as are the salaries of resident doctors.

"We're going to have to increase the quality of our hospital service because under Medicare we will have paying patients," Stallings pointed out, bringing up the possible aspect of competition with other district hospitals such as Peninsula and Sequoia, since patients eligible for Medicare can elect to go to those hospitals instead.

Under informal discussion, he said, is the idea of merging all three district hospitals into a County General Hospital "with three different campuses, all under the same operational direction."

Stallings also said that he had informally approached Stanford University on the idea of buying County General Hospital and converting it into a teaching facility. The idea was met with some positive response, and the hospital superintendent indicated he would take up the idea with his board.

Under this arrangement, the county would lease the hospital to Stanford, Stanford would operate it, and the county would contract for services for people that it is required to care for under law.

"Heretofore, County General has been a charity hospital. With Medicare this is no longer so," Stallings said. Of people in the hospital on February 9, he said, 62 per cent were fully eligible for Medicare.

In addition, Dr. Chope estimates that up to 10,000 people in the county are eligible for hospital care who are not categorically-linked to the Medicare program.

Finally, there remains the possibility, Stallings said, of County General becoming another district hospital for the use of South San Mateo, Belmont, and San Carlos residents.

TIRE, CHAINS TAKEN

Donna L. Williams, of 225 Coronado Avenue, Daly City reported to police last week that a spare tire and chains had been stolen from his auto.

Proclamation Declared

Francis Pacelli, mayor of Daly City, has announced that the month of April has been declared "Cancer Control Month" in the city of Daly City.

The mayor commented that "cancer is a threat to the well-being of us all and the welfare of every citizen depends in some measure upon its eventual control."

He called for the complete community backing of the American Cancer Society's annual crusade against the disease

Pacificans Attend A Workshop

A group of 22 Pacifica residents interested in promoting a community education program from the College of San Mateo, attended a workshop-meeting, with Dr. William Miller from the College, last week to discuss a course of action.

Results of a questionnaire compiled by Coast Librarian Janette Thompson, and other ideas were presented.

The workshop was held at noon in the Sharp Park Library Community Room. Among those attending were Karl Baldwin, City Manager, Eldred Lokker from the Park, Beach and Recreation Commission, Superintendent Fred Lucas, and Assistant Superintendent Lucille Foster, from the Laguna Salada School District, as well as representatives from the Culture Room Committee, Friends of the Library, and Association of University Women.

Pacificans for Human Concern, a new organization headed by Mrs. Frances Power, had initially contacted Dr. Miller to have an education program started in Pacifica. Members of that group and Mrs. Power were also present.

"I would like to use Pacifica for a prototype—an experimental program in education, "Dr. Miller stated. He described a pioneering plan which would incorporate flexible day groups of study, culminating in evening lectures, or a two year package of short courses. The latter he said would be like a "train of boxcars, each unique but with a common entity, so as not to be fragmented." The subject matter would be one of choice.

Miller said that he was aware of the "two populations" in Pacifica; housewives and day residents, and night residents, and that he hoped for a program.

Another workshop will be held at the library room today at noon to form a steering committee which will work with Dr. Miller on a program for the fall. Interested residents of Pacifica have been asked to attend.

D.C. Planners Deny 2 Zone Applications

The Daly City Planning Commission last week denied two applications for zoning changes by Thomas J. Callan Jr.

The commission denied both applications on the grounds that neither showed a need for the alteration of zoning classification.

Changes from R-1 to R-3 at 480 Westlake Avenue and at the intersection of Santa Cruz Avenue and Hillcrest Drive were both refused.

The commissioners felt that the two changes would create "irregular boundaries" in the two areas named and that there was no need for R-3 zoning in either area.

In other business the commission granted a variance application to Alfred E. Martire of 183 Santa Paula Drive to reduce his rear yard to a zero level at one point.

The commission held over two other applications for 30 days.

Woman Hurt In Domestic Rift

A 21-year-old Daly City woman was hospitalized last week with a severely lacerated lip and bruises of the face, back and lower neck as the result of a domestic argument, police reported.

The woman, Billie June Tirado of 675 San Diego Avenue, told police she had been beaten by her husband. Police said the incident was under investigation.

Westmoor Aide Attends Meet

Westmoor High School speech teacher Maryann Holden has attended the Western Speech Association convention in Anaheim.

She termed the convention "excellent."

Red clay flower pots upside down over clay saucers make ideal ashtrays for home workshops. Drop matches and cigarettes through the hole in the bottom of the pot and they are extinguished because of the lack of oxygen inside.

Youth for ORT Formed For Teen-agers in North County

A high school group, Youth for ORT, has been formed by the Northern Peninsula Chapter of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training).

Interim officers are Dario Oakley, president; Leslie Goldstrom, vice president; Diane Galli, corresponding secretary; Kathy Steinkamp, recording secretary and Steve Coleville, treasurer.

Committee chairman include Sharon Rudolph, Suzanne Deliscia, John Jones, Virginia Steinkamp and Marcy Dobrow.

The group's first activity, a house party, will be held from 7 to 11:30 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Goldstrom at 64 Kapay Circle, South San Francisco.

Reservations may be made with Elaine Lenes at 445 Alta Vista Drive, South San Francisco.

Mrs. Morton Dobrow, past president of the Northern Peninsula Chapter, is advisor to the group.

Student Trio In Berkeley Symposium

Three Westmoor High School students attended the Junior Science Humanities Symposium held at the Berkeley campus of the University of California March 17, 16, and 19.

Rayme Lichtenberg, Mike Shackleford and John Wildman were Westmoor's representatives to the symposium that included students from schools throughout Northern California.

At the symposium 23 student papers were presented. Among the papers was one written by Mike Shackleford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shackleford of 205 Village Lane, Daly City. The paper dealt with the light induction of photosynthetic enzymes.

Both Rayme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Remy Lichtenberg of 1831 Louvaine Drive, Colma, and John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wildman of 3 Woodland Avenue, Daly City, attended various talks given by students and faculty members at the University of California on such topics as bio-chemistry and the effect of environmental red light on sexual activity in male mice.

Among the other activities that the students took part in were guided tours of their favorite department at the University of California and field trips. John and Rayme visited the Richmond Field Engineering Station, while Mike toured the Lawrence Radiation Lab.

Students were also able to hear panel discussions and ask questions of the panelists who were members of the faculty and the student body of the University of California.

Westmoor Hi Club Plans A Car Wash

Instead of risking getting drenched by the family garden hose, the International Friendship Club of Westmoor High School is encouraging owners to bring their autos to its car wash this Saturday, at the Richfield Gas Station, Lake Merced Boulevard and Southgate Avenue, in Daly City.

Originally planned for March 19, a mistake in scheduling caused the change to April 2.

IFC will use profits from the car wash for its participation in the Experiment in International Living.

Mrs. Lois McNabb, Westmoor English teacher and the club's advisor, said, "I hope the community will show the same enthusiasm that it did last year with the IFC'S car wash and help the students sponsoring the activity earn money for Westmoor's International Friendship Club."

BAYSHORE BURGLARY

Daly City police reported last week that a burglar took $4 cash and a watch from the home of Ernestine Friend, 16 Battleship Road, in the Bayshore district.

Prep Bands Compete In Annual Fete

North County high school bands fared well at the University of Nevada's Annual Stage Band Festival.

South San Francisco High School won first prize in its category and Westmoor took an honorable mention in its classification.

Class Hears Lecture By An Alcoholic

A member of Alcoholics Anonymous brought the psychology students of Westmoor High closer to the problems of alcoholism recently, by relating his own experiences with the disease and explaining its psychological and physiological effects.

Students were impressed by his speech, yet horrified by his descriptions of blackouts and DT's. They noted that he didn't look like an alcoholic but rather like a wealthy businessman. He told them that many doctors, lawyers, and other professional men belong to A.A.

A.A. welcomes anyone to its open meetings, and is a self-supporting organization where alcoholics help each other; only alcoholics are members.

With each other's help, alcoholics are often able to find their way and to achieve their basic goal, sobriety. Before an alcoholic can join A.A., he must want to achieve this goal and want help in achieving it.

Vespers Set For Midweek

The sixth and final service of the series of midweek Lenten Vespers will be held at Hope Lutheran Church, 55 San Fernando Way, Daly City, at 7:30 p.m. tonight, the Rev. Arnim H. Polster has announced.

Based on the Passion history from the Gospels, "The Burial of Our Lord," Pastor Polster will deliver his sermon on the theme "Christ Fulfills the Scriptures."

Special Palm Sunday services are scheduled at Hope Lutheran at 8:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday. At the 11 o'clock service, members of the junior confirmation class will be confirmed.

Chapel Readies Sunday Message

"The Road to the Cross at Jerusalem," will be Walter E. Stram's 11 a.m. message Sunday, at the Peninsula Church of Christ, Olivet Chapel, Hillside Boulevard and F Street, Colma.

SAN BRUNO IRKED

'Skyline,' 'Canada' New Campus Names

Skyline College and Canada (with the Spanish pronunciation, "Canyawda") College.

These are the names — both rich in local flavor — selected unanimously last week by the board of trustees for San Mateo Junior College District's new north and south campuses, respectively.

The board, meeting at College of San Mateo, reached its decisions after months of study during which literally scores of names were suggested for the two as-yet-unborn, and decidedly unidentical, educational twins. Both new institutions, soon to start under construction, are scheduled to open for classes in September, 1968.

In choosing Skyline College for the north campus, located on a crest site overlooking both the bay and the ocean west of Skyline Boulevard and south of Sharp Park Road in San Bruno, trustees took into sympathetic account a last-ditch campaign by San Bruno officials to have the school named after their city.

San Bruno's vice mayor, Donald Risso, presented a city council resolution to the board to that effect.

"Our people are very proud to have this school in our city," Risso said. "They assumed from the start that it would have San Bruno in its name. To leave it out, to pick some other name, would be a slap in the face to them."

The name for the south campus, situated on the Redwood City-Woodside boundary line, stems from Canada Road, which runs along the western edge of the site and which has been in existence since the days of the early settlers in the region.

The word "Canada," according to local historian Frank M. Stanger, means "long valley" and refers, in its application here, to the valley between the bayside's foothills and the Coast range which the campus overlooks.

Two College of San Mateo committees did preliminary work on the "names problem." An advisory committee to President Julio L. Bortolazzo unanimously recommended both Skyline College and Canada College. The second group, a faculty names committees, also proposed Skyline for the north campus, but offered two other possibilities in addition to Canada for the south campus: Kings Ridge, coupling nearby Kings Mountain with the elevated campus setting above the valley floor, and San Raymundo, the designation of a Spanish-era ranch which included the college site.

Neither committee expressed concern over the risk of having "Canada" mispronounced to sound like our neighbor nation.

Alan P. Tory, chairman of the faculty committee, observed that the Spanish pronunciation of the road name has already become a fixed habit locally, and that many other Spanish names in California have long since become part of the general vocabulary.

In previous deliberations which paved the way for last week's action, the trustees had decided to select individualized names for the new campuses, since district policy calls for making them equal and autonomous partners with College of San Mateo.

Among the other names considered for the north campus were Sanchez and Ortega.

Judea Gives School Books

On behalf of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, Temple Judea formally presented to Mercy High School a set of 12 books for the Catholic High School Library.

The gift was made in the library of the school. Rabbi Herbert Morris and Temple Judea Brotherhood President Henry Metz made the presentation to members of the Mercy Student Council.

Some of the works included in the gift were by Sholom Aleichem whose stories of Jewish living in the eastern European ghettoes have been dramatized on Broadway in the production "Fiddler on the Roof."

S.F. Workman Dislocates Toe

The workman, Armando C. Garcia, 35, of San Francisco, was treated at Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City.

PROBLEM FOR PGE

The Great N. County Copper Caper

By JOHN HORGAN

The ageless law of supply and demand is apparently catching up with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

The firm's major concern for this truth in this economic adage is centered around the commodity of copper, a metal which has greatly diminished in supply around the world and has skyrocketed in price.

Knowledgeable thieves around the nation have discovered that copper wire stolen from the P.G. and E.'s facilities brings a healthy price on the black market. Reports from police departments indicate that the problem of copper thefts is becoming increasingly routine. And the North County is no exception to this trend.

Daly City police detective Robert Ingbrigtsen said yesterday that "copper thieves are hitting Daly City P.G. and E. facilities about once a month."

"Around the Bay Area the wire is going for about 50 cents a pound," reported Ingbrigtsen. "Usually the thefts run to about 1,800 pounds of wire. They (the thieves) haul it away in a pick-up truck or car. They usually take only old wire."

The thieves sell the wire to junk dealers who then auction off the wire to the highest bidder. When the dealers sell the old wire they bundle it up in rolls. Needless to say, it's nearly impossible to "keep tabs" on all the dealers who are handling the metal.

"In San Francisco and Daly City this year alone we have had over 40,000 pounds (20 tons) of the wire stolen," commented Ingbrigtsen.

According to Jonathan Goldsmith of the P.G. and E.'s Security Department in San Francisco, some of the other thefts of wire have bordered on the spectacular.

"A case occurred in Northern California some months back that made all the newspapers," said Goldsmith. "Some men simply climbed the telephone poles in a remote area of Mendocino County and began to roll up the wire as they cut it. They were caught easily but the idea was unique."

Goldsmith said that the thieves were dubbed "The Mendocino Pole-Cats" by P.G. and E. officials.

He also reported that a case took place in Eureka some months ago where a man climbed a telephone pole to snip off the wire but got caught in a strong wind, fell over with the pole and broke his leg.

Similar cases of actual climbing of telephone poles have been reported in other sparsely populated areas. None have turned up in the Bay Area as yet, however.

Goldsmith is gravely concerned about the situation, ludicrous "pole-cats" notwithstanding.

"The problem is getting worse as the price of copper rises. We aren't the only company being hit by the thieves but we are the main one. All police and sheriff departments have been made aware of the situation and are alert."

He stressed that the problem increases as the price of the wire goes up.

"The price of the stuff is still rising and doesn't appear to be near dropping. Some industries are even shutting down because they can't get enough copper at a decent price."

Why the sudden problem with copper?

Robert Morton of Dean Witter Company, a brokerage firm in San Francisco, explained that "there is a shortage of copper all over. Japan has become a big user of copper and has cut into American buying. There is such a shortage that black market ought to flourish."

He felt that the Bay Area ought to be an "ideal area for selling stolen wire because of the many electrical firms here."

Goldsmith and Morton revealed that the reasons for the shortage and the subsequent high copper prices are many: instability in Chile (a key copper source), a tremendous increase in the demand for copper due to new industries using it, the discovery of new uses for the wire and the finding that a combination of silver and copper makes a splended electrical conductor.

The problem does not figure to abate according to Goldsmith, until the price comes down or the availability increases.

Laguna Picks 3 Schools For Noon Plan

Three Laguna Salada District schools have been selected for a pilot program which will provide teachers with duty-free lunch periods.

The three, their names drawn at random, are Sanchez, Sharp Park, and Pacific Heights Schools.

Reeruiting, interviewing and selection of six noon-hour supervisors will continue through April 11.

An evaluation committee was to be appointed last week, Supt. Fred Lucas said.

The program will commence on April 18 at the three schools.

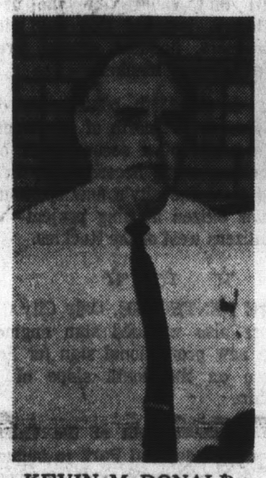
FOR POLICE BOARD

Broadmoor Sets A Quiet Election



KEVIN McDONALD
The Challenger

HARRY BROWN
The Incumbent

AN ELECTION will be held for the first time in nine years April 5 to elect a member of the three-man Broadmoor Police Commission.

Because of the forthcoming city council elections and the primary in June, the Broadmoor election has gone largely unnoticed.

Broadmoor residents will be asked to choose between incumbent commissioner Harry Brown, a 12-year veteran of the ruling board, and Kevin McDonald, co-owner with his wife of Mercy Ambulance Service.

McDonald has been a member of the Broadmoor Police Reserves for two years and was a San Francisco police officer from 1946 to 1954. Brown is claims supervisor for Firemen's Fund Insurance Company in San Francisco.

THE LAST TIME an election was held, in 1957, Brown defeated former Broadmoor Patrolman Gale Galusha.

In the intervening years, each time a commissoner's post has come up for election, only one person—usually the incumbent—has filed for election.

Because only one person was running, the board of supervisors appointed the candidate rather than hold an election, which would be academic.

Commissioners serve three-year terms. Each year, a term expires. In addition to Brown, the present commissioners are Vincent P. Murphy, a five-year member of the board, and Louis Manis, a three-year member.

Murphy is Daly City's postmaster. He was appointed to a three-year term last year after being unopposed for the commissioner's post.

Manis was appointed to the commission upon the death of Ross Hilton and two years ago was reappointed when he faced no opposition to succeed himself.

THE VOTING April 5 will be conducted at the Broadmoor Police Station at 388 Eighty-eighth Street and at the Colma Firehouse at 50 Reiner Street in Colma.

About 10,000 persons living in 1,400 homes are served by the district. Property owners paid a tax of 41 cents oer $100 of assessed valuation for the police protection last year.

The district has a seven-man force and a woman clerk. The force is headed by Chief Ray Savage. He has announced he will run for sheriff against incumbent Earl Whitmore.

Three Young Pacifica Men Are Injured in Car Wreck

Three young Pacificans were injured last week when their unbraked auto hit a traffic signal pole and then slammed into an embankment at San Bruno.

Two of the young men were thrown out of the 1953 model car in the crash at Sneath Lane Skyline Boulevard, but all were released after emergency treatment at Peninsula Hospital.

Police say the driver was Danny D. Long, 20, of 284 Marina Way, a service station employe, who was headed southward on Skyline at 3:55 p.m.

His passengers were William Bergman, 19, 140 McKinney Avenue, and Andrew J. Blahut, 19, 759 Arguello Boulevard.

As Long's auto neared the Sneath Lane intersection, the signal light turned red, and a car driven by Sandra J. McNutt stopped in front of him.

Long told police he applied the brakes, and found that he had none, then swerved left to avoid Miss McNutt's car.

As it careened across the pavement, both Long and Bergman were thrown out of the vehicle.

Long suffered injuries to his head, chest, knees, and both hands.

Bergman suffered neck, back, and internal injuries even though he remained in the careening auto, say police.

A San Bruno policeman checked the totally wrecked car, and verified that the auto had neither foot nor hand brakes in working order.

COMMENT

Ryan's Attack Is A Political Foul

THERE ARE no referees in politics to raise the cry of "foul" when the principles of honorable conduct, fair play and ethics are violated. Yet the final arbiters of politics are the voters and they can record and remember a "foul" when one has been committed.

They can, and will, bear in mind the conduct of Twenty-seventh District Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan who, on last Saturday, deliberately attacked the honor and reputation of San Mateo County Congressman J. Arthur Younger by declaring that Younger is party to a plot to deceive voters by retiring, for reasons of health, after the June primary election and before the November general election.

YOUNGER, one of the nation's esteemed statesmen, has promptly and vigorously denied this story.

Specifically, Ryan said that unnamed Republican friends had given him information on a high-level Republican "deal" under which a physician would advise Younger to retire following the primary election and that Younger would, accordingly, withdraw, permitting the Republican County Central Committee to name a new candidate for the general election.

The attack, made before a county convention of Democrats, was completely gratuitous since Ryan is not a candidate for Congress and seeks re-election to his incumbent post as a State Assemblyman. The enormity of the accusation is that it charges, at a single stroke, that reputable Republican leaders of this county, an unnamed doctor, and one of the most respected members of the United States House of Representatives, have engaged in a conspiracy to manipulate an election.

Like many other political schemes this one defeats its own purpose. It is too big a story for the people of San Mateo County to swallow — let alone stomach.

IF THERE is any vestige of support for Ryan's accusation it is plainly his duty to state his facts and sources. If he cannot do this he should recant his charges and make public apology.

Equally plainly, the conscientious citizens and voters of San Mateo County, Democrats and Republicans alike, have the duty of noting and remembering Ryan's conduct in this matter.

THEY HAVE elected Congressman J. Arthur Younger to the House of Representatives seven times before and he has served them honorably and faithfully. He is not likely to be injured by any irresponsible charge.

However, Assemblyman Ryan has now provided a revealing indication of his own stature as a statesman. It will not be soon forgotten.

Vista Mar School

VISTA MAR SCHOOL was completed in 1959. The architect for the Jefferson Elementary School District unit was Mario Campi. No additions have been made to the 14-classroom structure and none are planned for the future. At one time the school operated on double and triple sessions to accommodate 1,445 students. The school now has 452 students. Marjorie Tobias has been the principal since the school opened. (Post-Times Photo)

The Time For Things Foolish

Don Miller

IN TWO DAYS, the mischief-makers of the North County will stage their annual field day—a period devoted passionately to the practical joke, the humorous stunt, the joker in the pack and to any other maneuver or device designed to make someone else look foolish.

It's the celebration of April Fool's Day and it's a whoop-de-doo that a true mischief-maker starts planning for as soon as the last one is over.

We won't admit to a year of planning since last April 1 but we'll concede we've been thinking about a column for the occasion. Following a tradition inaugurated in past years, it's a sort of this was the week that wasn't column and it goes something like this:

UNQUESTIONABLY, the highlight of the week was the opening of Daly City's avante garde new Civic Center, rushed to completion in a record six months by feverish construction crews, laboring around the clock.

The stepped-up construction schedule was ordered by the city fathers when a poll showed that a fusion ticket was leading in the race for three city council seats, thereby erasing an early lead built up by the incumbents. The fusion ticket represents liquor, gambling and race track interests.

Opening of the Civic Center was duly celebrated at a gala ribbon-cutting ceremony at which all local, county, state and congressional candidates for election had been invited and at which they all showed up. And early.

The new building, everybody readily agreed, is a masterpiece of comfort and convenience. Moving sidewalks carried visitors to the center from a heated, air-conditioned five-level underground garage, the principal feature of which are mosaic walls depicting the city's progress during the current administration.

Inside the Civic Center, swift escalators hummed between the lobby—with its four fountains—and a penthouse, 20 floors up. A gushing open house party was in full swing at the top and out tinted windows, visitors saw a striking view of the changes in Daly City in recent years.

FOR EXAMPLE, to the north they could see the 10-level interchange at Knowles Avenue and Junipero Serra Boulevard, serving seven freeways, two expressways and an eight-lane boulevard leading to the new Bay Area Rapid Transit District station.

Motorists have dubbed the interchange "Gemini 8" because once involved with whirling around its ramps, drivers have found the experience comparable to the weightlessness experienced by astronauts. So complicated is the interchange, police say, that an average of five motorists are reported missing each week after entering the concrete puzzle.

Patrons of the nearby BARTD station, however, have found things less confusing. Special signs, 12 feet high, direct passengers to trains bound for such points as Bodega Bay, Salinas, Nevada City and Lake Berryessa. All trains are through express trains because a stonecutter's strike has held up construction of Italian marble station platforms in San Francisco and Oakland.

To the south, visitors in the Civic Center penthouse could barely see the new Serramonte High School of the Jefferson Union High School District.

After seven years of negotiation, the district and Suburban Realty, developers of the subdivision after which the high school was named, had agreed on a school site. The price was right, trustees agreed but they were disturbed by the location—a deep ravine created by the earthquake of 1957.

Although the school is six stories tall, all the open house visitors could see was the top of the school chimney. They knew school was in session because every now and then a whiff of smoke would curl out of the stack—proof that the district's first atomic reactor was running.

TO THE SOUTHWEST, guides pointed out Pacifica's new municipal home, supported on a revolutionary new corkscrew arch over San Pedro Rock, annexed by Pacifica last year in a fierce land struggle with the newly incorporated city of Montara, population 58,352.

The new Pacifica mansion, unlike its Daly City counterpart, stretches outward rather than upward—a development made possible only after the Coast Guard reluctantly agreed to move the north-south shipping lane a half-mile to the west.

Pacificans could be seen flocking to an observation platform at their city hall from where (as a rooftop, neon billboard pointed out) they could view the new municipal beach, jammed that day with 15,000 vacationers, huddled around fires and wreathed in heavy blankets.

Dense fog, in its 138th consecutive day, prevented a view to the north of construction of the first segment of a second deck over Pacifica's freeway, made necessary by heavy traffic to and from the city's new 88,000-unit, low rent senior citizen housing project—oper to all senior citizens west of the Rockies.

FROM THE PENTHOUSE, Daly City Civic Center visitors also watched sign engineers working on a new promotional sign for South San Francisco on the south slope of San Bruno Mountain.

Because of the growth of the Cabot, Cabot & Forbes Industrial Park to include Brisbane (to Brisbane's still-reserved judgment), the mountain sign is being changed to: "South San Francisco, the Cabot, Cabot & Forbes City."

Farther south, through binoculars, open house celebrants could see the San Bruno municipal flag waving over the new north terminal of the airport. After San Bruno's Chamber of Commerce declared the city should "adopt" the airport, the reaction was electrifying, to wit: the airport invited San Bruno to use the north terminal as a city hall. This incensed officials of Fluttercraft Incorporated, operators of a new over-water cable car, that had planned to move into the terminal.

And that, in 1966 wrappings, was the week that wasn't. Which is our way—two days early—of wishing on all of you an "April Fool!"

Better Business

Lorene Beasley

AMERICANS are known for their generosity. The American Association of Fund-Raising Counsel has estimated that charitable contributions to all causes totaled some $ ten billion last year, making charity the fourth largest industry in the United States.

"Unfortunately," says National Better Business Bureau, "about one per cent of the money contributed is wasted through outright fraud or inefficient management. While this is a small percentage, it does constiute a significant sum—more than $100 million last year."

Corporation profits since 1940 have increased 363 per cent. Corporation contributions have increased 1,168 per cent. The businessman's mail is loaded with appeals for every type of charity. Their common appeal is that money spent for charitable purposes is tax deductible. Many persons would rather give their money to charity than pay it out in income tax.

Better Business Bureau reminds the purchaser that a benefit ticket, no matter how worthy the cause, cannot be deducted in full.

According to the Internal Revenue ruling 56-120, all you can deduct is the amount paid over and above the regularly established price. This holds true even if the entire cost of the ticket goes to the charity named.

It also applies even if you do not use the ticket but give it to an underprivileged person.

CHARITY appeals, whether received direct or through the mail, should be carefully checked. Outright frauds in the name of charity have decreased with improved public education and state and federal regulation but the individual and civic organization is still being bilked. Any civic or club organization who lends its name to a fund raising program owes it to the public to carefully investigate the project and make certain that the donations will go where the donor intends them to go.

Professional fund raisers took $20 million from the American public for the Sister Kenny Foundation and kept more than $11 million as fees in one of the biggest charity swindles on record. The promoters received a ten year prison sentence.

Executives of the Kenny Rehabilitation Institute, reorganized from the Sister Kenny Foundation, were not involved.

BROTHER DAMIEN, posing sometimes as a priest, sometimes as a religious bother, bilked Catholic organizations out of $150,000 in phony charity solicitations before being trapped by his poor grammar.

Promoters of a scheme to provide companion dogs for blind children took 88 per cent of funds collected as their "fees."

Paralyzed Veterans of America conducts unordered merchandise mailings of greeting cards as part of its fund-raising program. Out of $1 per box paid by the public, Doehla Greeting Cards gets 42 cents per original box on renewal mailings; 44 cents per original box on new accounts and 70 per cent of all additional sales as distinguished from original box payment.

THE COUNCIL for the Blind was promised 25 per cent of the proceeds for sponsoring the radio and TV show in Marysville, Sacramento and Modesto.

BONA FIDE spokesmen for the show said they had never heard of the promoters who were missing with the proceeds.

The Marquee

Two Vulgar Projects

Barbara Bladen

HOLLYWOOD HAS FINALLY taken "The Invasion of the Body Snatchers" seriously. The sensationalism of two recent murder cases is being commercialized on by an independent company, Chandelle Productions, while their headlines are still fresh in the public's mind.

The cases involved are the double slaying of Janice Wylie and Emily Hoffert in New York and the Candace "Candy" Mossler and Melvin Powers trial in Miami, Fla.

Obviously, the big money and superpublicity campaign that put Truman Capote's on-the-scene trial, "In Cold Blood," into headlines, gendered the idea.

It's not the first time literary gravediggers have made ghoulish use of their subjects but never has it been dispatched with such haste. Otto Preminger based "Anatomy of a Murder" on an actual case; "The Birdman of Alcatraz," brought Robert Stroud back to life after he was imprisoned for murder, and Barbara Graham was seen being electrocuted through the eyes of Susan Hayward in "A Rage to Live," based on her association with killers Emmett Perkins and Jack Santo.

Necrophilia, outside the realm of science fiction and the classics of Edgar Allen Poe and Dostoyevski, is as untimely on the entertainment scene as it is tasteless.

TWO PROSTITUTIONS become immediately apparent. In the case of Candy Mossler, her acquittal must have come as a nasty surprise to her self-appointed literary pallbearers. Their scripts would have been a lot more meaty and dramatic had she been convicted and led off to prision screaming protestations of innocence or any number of standard cliche endings. They'll certainly be forced to fictionalize the final scene.

Mrs. Mossler and her nephew-lover Powers will get a goodly share of the film rights for their part in the film negotiations. Considering the vulgarity of the project, they could conceivably play themselves in the lead roles.

There might be an invasion of privacy and libel suit but testimony, including Candy's press conference following he verdict and court records, are a matter of public domain.

As a member of the vast newspaper reading public, I'm sick to death of the lurid and revolting details, implied and stated, of the long-running, front page story. To glamorize it further on film is an outrage to public decency.

Hollywood has no scruples in twisting the truth. How such professional and presumably principled persons as the reporter who covered the trial and has access to a great deal f pertinent material; the investigators for both Candy's and Power's defense teams and the Miami public defender will be able to reconcile slanting the facts for the sake of good scripting is disappointing to a journalist who takes pride in his profession.

What ever their personal opinions, they've committed themselves to working on a film that will, within the censorship codes, sugar coat the facts.

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

The February Westlaker claims as a return for our assessment, the association sees to it that the area does not become run down, but becomes a better place to live.

I made a phone call to them recently reporting that our street had been smeared with what appears to be gallons of blue paint I was told it is a police matter. So I reported it to the police twice, because nothing had been done to clean up this vandalistic mess after my first report. Guess what the second officer asked me? "Did you report it to the Westlake Improvement Association"?

While the W.I.A. and the Daly City Police Department play pass the buck, the mess remains to depreciate our street.

The W.I.A. also states in the same article that the association does a hundred little things we don't hear about to perpetuate high level standards. How about it doing a couple of little things we can hear about, and tell about, to protect our home investment?

I have always been prompt with my annual dues; and also tried to turn in my annual vote. But the association has always passed the buck, when I called on them for help. Then what do they actually do for us besides clean our streets weekly, and clip the ally? I would really like to believe in them.

What about the hazards created in the streets by children's bottle busting? I am weary of sweeping up broken glass outside my house. Just as weary as I am of cleaning up the mess of dogs turned loose by careless owners. That was another problem everyone passed the buck on from the W.I.A. to the Humane Society, to the law . . . with practically no results.

Is there anyone else as weary of this pass the buck routine as I am? It amounts to continual unkept promises.

When I hear about all that is being done for us, it really irks me.

Margaret O Richardson,

TO THE EDITOR:

Wall to wall housing on San Bruno Mount? The builders get richer, the people don't count. No room for walking, no place for a hike, You can't ride a horse, you can't ride a bike. Hemmed in by freeways and houses in rows Where it will stop, nobody knows. Gouge out the mountains, hack down the trees, Nature is something that's just for the bees.

Let's move to the country young families decide, Distressed they discover there's no country side. What a beautiful park could be made on that mount, If people don't care, people don't count. Our cities could buy it, it's not hopeless yet. It's an investment the people would never regret. Let's act now, before it's too late, We do have a choice let's not leave it to fate!

The Book Shelf

A Handy Guide For Film-Goers

Samuel Chandler

THE GREEN SHEET is a little known but most valuable survey of current movies. Its express purpose is to "offer a guide to the selection of current entertainment films by informing the moviegoer of their content."

It includes descriptive information about American and foreign movies available to audiences in most communities and gives consideration to awide range of tastes." Besides doing all this, it publishes a list of motion pictures based on books and plays.

Each movie reviewed has been carefully reviewed by a film estimate board of members of such organizations as the National Congress of the P-TA; the American Jewish Committee; the Federation of Motion Picture Councils, Inc.; the Protestant Motion Picture Council; the American Library Association, and the Schools Motion Picture Committee.

Here's how it works—Disney's "Ugly Daschund" is rated with GA which means general audiences; while "Winnie the Pooh and the Honey Tree," also from the Walt Disney studios, is rated GA-C. That means for general audience as well as for children unaccompanied by adults.

"Ten Little Indians" presenting Hugh O'Brian and Shirley Eaton—based on Agatha Christie's book "And Then There were None"—is rated A-MY. This means for adults and mature young people.

"The Flight of the Phoenix," starring James Stewart and an all male cast is rated A-MY-Y; adult, mature young people and young people. (No help is given in determining whether your child is in the mature young people or the young people class).

"Wild Wild Winter" starring Gary Clarke, is rated just for children. "Viva Maira," Brigitte Bardot's latest, is rated — you've guess it — as A. "Alice of Wonderland in Paris" is rated GA-C. "Lord Love a Duck" starring Roddy McDowall and Tuesday Weld is an A. "Madam X" with Lana Turner and John Forsythe is an A-MY, as is "Dracula," Prince of Darkness."

OCCASSIONALLY the experts who rate the picture will have a difference of opinion. When this happens a D is used. Since December this big D has been published along side "The Battle of the Bulge," "The Heroes of Telemark," and "King Rat."

Although the producers of the Green Sheet carefully explain that these ratings are only suggestions of audience levels, they have proven to be sound in nine out of ten cases.

The World Is BETTER Because of Want Ads!

The origin of the idea of "want ads" or Classified Advertising is many times older than the history of newspapers. —But it was with the advent of newspapers that want ads really came into their own. And from that day to this want ads have made up an integrally important part of the contents of the newspaper.

As well as historians can determine, the first want ad was written in ancient Thebes over 3,000 years ago by a weaver trying to trace an escaped slave. The usage of want ads continued throughout history and in 1704 the first published want ad in America appeared in the Weekly Boston News Letter. On this date a Mr. Wm. Bradford, a Printer in New York, chose this method to acquaint the public with real estate holdings in Long Island—and set off a chain reaction that has seldom paused.

Life Savings Stolen From S.S.F. Barber

Sam Zucco, a resident of South San Francisco 47 years, said he had been saving the money for "quite a long time."

Apparently someone else knew of this, say police, because a thief pried open a side window on Zucco's home at 521 Pine Terrace and ransacked the house while Mrs. Zucco was out shopping.

The money was in various containers, kept in several places in the house, and included money of many denominations.

Lodge Robbed In Daly City

Thieves stole $200 from a cash register at the Copperwood Lodge at 1197 Hillside Boulevard in Daly City, lodge officials reported to police last week.

The theft occurred between 2:30 and about 9:15 a.m. yesterday, the officials said. There was no sign of forced entry.

IT'S FUN! IT'S FREE! IT'S EASY!

Just pick up your Free Copy of the Bonus Bingo Game Book at your Safeway Store

ALL BONUS BINGO Game Books are identical and contain 8 games. The individual game layouts and the simple rules on page 3 of the book will show you how to win prizes up to $1,000 in cash! Nothing to buy! You are not limited to the number of times you can win. Adults Only!

START PLAYING

MANY, MANY WAYS TO WIN!

PLAY ALL 8 GAMES AT ONCE

WIN EARLY AND OFTEN ON EACH AND EVERY GAME

Each time you visit our store, you will receive ABSOLUTELY FREE a BONUS BINGO PRIZE SLIP having a "wash-off" patch on the front which conceals the identity of the game to which the slip applies and the number and letter of the specific box you can score on that game. Remove the "wash-off" patch by holding the slip under running water and rubbing VERY GENTLY thus revealing the Game and Box Number.

Locate the designated game in your BONUS BINGO Game Book and mark the box specified on the slip with an "X". There are many ways to win . . . so HOLD ALL SLIPS. You win the prize shown for any game just by scoring any 5 boxes on that game in a straight line—either vertically, horizontally or diagonally. All boxes containing a printed "X" in your Game Book are FREE boxes . . . and count as scored . . . to help you win. When you have collected the necessary slips to win a prize as indicated in your Game Book, present them to our Store Manager for award of your Cash Prize.

Treat Yourself To Luci's Brownies

HERE IT is, Luci Baines Johnson's recipe for Brownies straight from the White House.

The ingredients and method are Luci's own. All we did was to try her recipe and add a couple of details—the sort of flour and the size of pan that may be used.

Luci's Recipe For Brownies

1 cup sugar
3 squares unsweetened chocolate
2 eggs
1 cup chopped pecans
¾ cup unsifted regular flour
1 teaspoon vanilla

Melt the butter; while it is melting, put the sugar into a mixing bowl. Add part of the melted butter (about three-quarters of it) to the sugar. To the rest of the butter, add the chocolate and mix over very low heat to melt the chocolate; add this to the butter and sugar mixture.

Beat in the eggs, one at a time, with a spoon. Stir in the pecans, flour and vanilla.

Bake in a greased pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches) at 375 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. It is important to watch that the Brownies do not get too done. To test, lightly press a finger on the top; if no imprint is left, they are ready.

Bacon Stacks Often Good Lucheon Idea

Looking for something unusual as a luncheon entree?

One pound of Canadian - style bacon is cut into 12 slices, approximately one-fourth of an inch in thickness. Two slices are put together with the orange and onion in sandwich fashion for baking and serving.

Canadian-style bacon is a tender cut of meat, for this is the boneless loin of pork which has practically no cooking loss when serving it.

Cnaadian-Style Bacon With Orange Sauce

12 slices Canadian-style bacon, cut ¼ inch thick (1 pound)
6 thin onion slices
6 orange slices, rind removed
2 teaspoon sugar
1 tabiespoon cornstarch
1 cup orange juice
1 orange, cut in sections
2 teaspoons grated orange rind.

Grease a shallow 1½-quart baking dish. Place 6 slices of Canadian-style bacon in it. Top each slice wtih an onion slice, an orange slice and another slice of Canadian-style bacon. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Mix together sugar and cornstarch. Add orange juice and cook, stirring constantly, until thick and clear. Stir in orange sections and orange rind. Serve over Canadian-style bacon. 6 servings.

Rice, Peas And Onions

Roast Veal with Natural Gravy
Rice with Peas and Onions
Salad Bowl Relish Tray
Lemon Cake-Pudding Beverage

RICE WITH PEAS AND ONIONS

1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas with tiny onions in butter sauce (in cooking pouch)
1 cup long-grain rice, cooked and hot directions; toss with hot cooked
¼ cup diced pimiento
3 tablespoons minced parsley

Crab Casserole From Seattle Cafe

The recipe for this sumptuous crab casserole is one of almost 100 favorite resturant recipes included in an informal little cookbook published by the Easter Seal Society. Members of the National Restaurant Association from all sections of the nation adapted their favorite recipes for home use for the book. Here is the recipe for crab casserole which was provided by the Cheerio Coffee Shop, Seattle, Wash.

CHEERIO CRAB CASSEROLE
¼ pound butter
1 teaspoon grated onion
½ cup flour
2 cups whole milk
½ cup coffee cream
3 egg yolks
2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley
2 tablespoons finely chopped chives
¼ cup canned mushrooms, drained
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
3 tablespoons sherry
1 pound frozen crabmeat, thawed or canned, drained
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
dry bread crumbs

Melt butter in saucepan; stir in onion and flour. Gradually add milk and cream, blending well. Cook until well-thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add parsley, chives, mushrooms, seasoning and sherry. Stir in crabmeat and chopped eggs. Pour into individual casseroles or a 1 quart casserole. Sprinkle with equal parts of bread crumbs and Swiss cheese. Place under broiler until bubbly and delicately browned. May be served over toast or rice. Makes 5 servings.

Brighten a Snack With Ham Leftover

If the ham has been one of the large ones, 12 to 14 pounds, slices after the first meal has been served offer tempting sandwiches, with mustard and rye bread, if you please! Maybe you would even like a club sandwich using chopped, hard-cooked eggs and mayonnaise as one deck with juicy slices of ham as the second.

Sandwiches like this deserve to be "dressed up" so cut them in thirds rather than halves, holding them together with a kabob of a pineapple chunk and pickle.

Ham and Carrot Spread
1 cup ground cooked ham
½ cup brated raw carrots
½ cup salad dressing
1½ teaspoons prepared horseradish
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Hasty Ham Special
2½ cups cubed cooked ham
1 can (2 ounces) mushrooms
1-3 cup butter or margarine
1-3 cup enriched flour
2 cups milk (or milk and mushroom liquid)
⅛ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
1 tablespoon chopped parsley, if desired
2 cans (4 ounces each) chow mein noodles

Cook mushrooms in butter or margarine in large saucepan until lightly browned. Remove mushrooms, add flour and mix well. Add milk gradually and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add salt, pepper, pimiento, parsely, mushrooms and ham. Heat thoroughly, stirring occasionally. Serve on chow mein noodles. 4 to 6 servings.

Hearty Corn Fritters For Your Brunch

Hearty Corn Fritters
Maple Syrup
Baked Bacon Beverage
Fresh Fruit Compote

HEARTY CORN FRITTERS
1¼ cups sifted regular flour
½ cup yellow cornmeal
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons sugar
1 can (12 ounces) vacuum pack yellow whole kernel corn.
2 eggs
2 teaspoons salad oil
1 can (8½ ounces) yellow cream-style corn

Sift together flour, cornmeal, baking powder, salt and sugar. Drain the whole-kernel corn reserving 1-3 cup of the liquid. To reserved liquid, add the eggs and salad oil; beat until thoroughly combined. Stir in the cream-style corn. Gradually stir in the sifted dry ingredients and drained whole-kernel corn. Heat oil (at least 2 inches deep) to 365 degrees on deep-frying thermometer. Drop batter by tablespoonfuls into hot fat. Fry about 5 minutes, turning once, or until golden brown. Drain on brown paper; serve hot. Makes 2 fritters or 8 servings.

J. ARTHUR YOUNGER
To Give Talk

Younger Sets Pacifica Talk

Congressman J. Arthur Younger will address members of the Pacifica Rotary Club Tuesday, April 12, it has been announced by Ed Houg, presdent of the club.

Younger will speak on current legislative matters before the House of Representatives and will answer questions from the audience on all federal issues.

The meeting will be held at noon at Nick's Rockaway Restaurant.

Younger is home from Washington for the Easter recess and is addressing as many civic groups as possible during this time, an aide said.

Dissolving Of Harbor Vote Now Certain

With "personal reservation," the County Local Agency Formation Commission last week recommended that the County Harbor District be dissolved.

Members of LAFC, following a three-hour hearing in Redwood City, said they were not convinced that dissolution of the district would be a good thing, but felt that the voters should be given the chance to decide the matter.

Following the hearing, John F. Condon, a member of the harbor board, charged that the matter was "cut and dried" and predicted that the County Board of Supervisors will take some action, as the LAFC. Condon said supporters of the district should start working on a public information program to defeat the measure in the June 7 election.

Condon had charged in the public hearing that the proposal was a "power grab" by County Manager E. R. Stallings.

The hearing was an emergency session scheduled to fit a tight time-table necessary if the measure is to be qualified for the June election. Following the LAFC action, the Board of Supervisors scheduled their own public hearing for 2 p.m. April 7.

The LAFC asked that additional facts about the proposed transfer of the district's functions to the county be developed by that time.

"The Local Agency Formation Commission wishes," a letter to the board stated, "that the Board of Supervisors may be able, before its scheduled public hearing, to delineate further the manner in which the Harbor District is to be administered. In essence, it would like clarification of the alternatives to the use of the Parks and Recreation Commission that may be utilized to effectively carry out the mission and functions of the Harbor District.

"The contention of the Harbor Commission was that transfer of responsibilities to the Board of Supervisors would entail more additions to staff requirements and further remove Harbor District activities from public view. The LAFC wishes that public assurances be given on these matters to further clarify issues for electoral decision."

The Harbor District includes the entire county but its only function is the administration of the Pillar Point Harbor near Half Moon Bay.

During the brief consideration of the matter by the Board of Supervisors yesterday, Stallings said the election on dissolution was proposed to be held in June because none of the district commissioners will be running for election at that time. If the matter were to be held over until the November general election, he explained, there would be a conflict because the commission election will be held at that time.

SPOTLIGHTS STOLEN

George P. Makras, 73 Zitza Manor, Daly City, told police last week that two spotlights were stolen from his 1965 compact car while it was parked on Saint Francis Boulevard.

Cities Urged To 'Save' The Mountain

San Francisco sould join neighboring communities in an attempt to "save" San Bruno Mountain from being topped in a proposed gigantic earth hauling project, E. Robert Scrofani said today.

Scrofani, Northern California director of the State wide Homeowners' Association Inc., urged the Board of Supervisors to join the fight for a regional and scenic park.

"San Mateo Park and Recreation Commission has recommended a large regional park and vista points with a panoramic view of the Bay Area," he noted.

"A number of Northern San Mateo County cities are already on record to turn the hills into a regional park. The recommendation of the San Mateo Park and Recreation Commission has given their views a boost," Scrofani said.

He explained that plans are to lower the earth mass 150 to 350 feet or a total of 50 million yards of earth from the picturesque San Bruno Mountains.

B. of A. Pays 5 Per Cent

Bank of America became the first major California bank to offer California consumers a savings plan paying a premium 5 per cent interest.

The bank announced that it would issue time certificates in amounts of $5,000 or more with six months' maturity. These certificates will pay an interest rate of 5 per cent per annum.

In commenting on the increase in interest rates, Bank President R. A. Peterson said: "We felt this was an opportune time to bring the advantages of generally rising interst rates to the California consumer. Heretofore, certificates of deposit paying premium interest rates generally were available only in denominations suitable for corporations or extremely well-to-do individuals. We feel our new plan brings the advantages of a high return and the safety of a bank to the individual California saver."

The bank announced that the new 5 per cent rate certificates are available immediately at any of its 900 branches throughout the state.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

The Cause of Cavities—
The cause of cavities is not known, but most dentists agree sugar is considered as one of the possible factors. This is not the whole answer, but it is important to remember that if we are going to face facts, we may have to limit the sugar in our diet for the sake of our teeth. The problem is a great one. Among sugar containing items are many of the fruits, fruit juices, and vegetables. Even skimmed milk contains about 5% sugar. The list is almost endless, and includes such things as cookies, candies, soft drinks, pies, cakes, ice cream, jams, jellies, etc. Ask your dentist about the amount of sugar permissible for the health of your teeth.

Dr. Campbell limits his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for some; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth as even the beautiful modern dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

STATE DIVISION OF HIGHWAYS drawing shows traffic changes which go into effect today on Skyline Boulevard, Crystal Springs Road and Crestmoor Drive in San Bruno. Road closures, which will remain in effect until fall of 1967, are necessitated by construction of interchange for Interstate 280 freeway and State Route 35. Area affected is between Larkspur Drive in Millbrae and San Bruno Avenue. State engineers say earth-hauling operations will probably be necessary during peak traffic hours to meet construction schedules; motorists along Skyline may be subject to sudden stops and temporary obstructions during the operation. Completed segment will include an interchange at Skyline and Junipero Serra Boulevard, an overcrossing at Crystal Springs Road and an undercrossing at Whitman Way.

She's The Youngest Merchant

Georgette Marignac

Georgette Marignac is Westlake Shopping Center's newest merchant. She is also the youngest — 22 years old.

Miss Marignac has purchased the Westlake Beauty Salon at 371 South Mayfair Avenue, and renamed it Georgette's of Westlake.

While the completely remodeled shop has been open under Miss Marignac's ownership since March 1, a grand opening open house for invited friends and guests is planned for early April.

The new owner, who attended San Francisco's Galileo High School and San Francisco State College, is no stranger to the beauty business.

Her parents operated beauty shops for 15 years in San Francisco's Mission District, and have been in the business for 35 years.

BUSINESS

Retailers To Hold Seminar On Security

A Security Seminar for retail management is scheduled for April 20 at the Edgewater Inn in Oakland.

Joe Azzopardi of Manor Markets, chairman for the event, said, "In their efforts to hold down the cost of food and other products, the Bay Area Grocers Association and the Retail Special Agents Association of Northern California have teamed up to put on a one-day program to make store managers more aware of personnel and customer dishonesty.

"Savings in both internal and external theft would mean a saving to the consumer, since such losses must be reflected in higher prices," he said.

The subjects covered by experts in their field will include "Apprehending and Prosecuting Shoplifting," "Reducing Bad Check Losses" and "Protection of Men and Money During Holdups."

New Savings Plan Outlined

American Savings and Loan Association of California has announced that it will offer prepaid savings certificates of $2,500 or more, bearing 5 per cent annual interest, payable semi-annually.

"This action is in keeping with the Federal Home Loan Bank Board authorization," said S. Mark Taper, president of American Savings.

Gomans' Gay 90's Top Show for 25 Years

GOMANS' GAY 90's is one San Francisco supper club that deserves the support of those who enjoy a night of superior dining, dancing and a real laughy revue. One can drive on Broadway right to the Gay 90's door, where an attendant will park your car—none of the Broadway miseries with car parking at the Gay 90's! THE GOMANS, who have been giving Northern California the best in everything in night clubs for over 25 years, rate the backing of those who like good clean fun at night . . . PLATEAU 7 in San Jose, easily the most lavish restaurant in that area, is managed by Tennessee Ernie Ford look-alike JACK WALLER, who takes pride in offering the finest in food and service . . . The THOMAS BELLS had a gala anniversary celebration at a steak dinner at LEW LEHR'S. Same eve, young VAN PORTER was given a seventeenth birthday party at Lew's.

SHAPELY DANCE STAR JULIET PROWSE will be in for a big surprise when she arrives in San Francisco, next month, for her week engagement at the Circle Star Theater in San Carlos. The vivacious Hollywood star will be met at San Francisco Airport by Carrousel du Soleil restaurant owner, Ralph Oswald, and his head-fizzer-chauffeur, Gene Stashuk, who will whisk the lovely damsel away to the restaurant in Ralph's authentic 1954 English Cab, which Juliet is just crazy about (the meter won't be running, naturally) . . . "A little bit of North Beach" flourishes on the Peninsula at the Cameo Club in Palo Alto. The Topless abundance of orange-tressed Sandy Symonds is featured nightly in the five-act variety revue. This weekend is the last to see rollicking Cameo Players with top banana Charles Boyer and banjo nut Kenny Burt. Top-heavy sexotic, Tanta-Liza, will be joined on Tuesday by curvaceous Dee-Light, and vocalist Irene Barri.

BECAUSE OF THE FUNCTIONAL planning that went into the King's Table in Redwood City, food is always served as it should be—piping hot or crisply cold. In addition to featuring broiled New York steaks at only $1.50, Manager Carlo Fassolo would like to remind you that King's Table offers four other hot entrees and 35 tantalizing salads. Don't forget the "All you can eat" luncheons for only $1 . . . One of the most important aspects of Rudolfo's Continental restaurant in Palo Alto is their fully staffed kitchen of expertly trained personnel. Owners Harry, Art, George, Rudy and Al Alfinito are always on hand to guarantee their guests the same fine cuisine and service that have made Rudolfo's a favorite of gourmets. Private banquets may be arranged by calling 326-0613 . . . For a dining out treat, try the Medallion of Beef on the de luxe dinner at Del Vecchio's, popular lunch, dinner and cocktail spot in San Francisco.

BILL GILBERT, bossman of the TIGER-A-GO-GO CLUB, has another sure "winner" in SANDY AND THE VIKINGS, his current hit show that opened last week to an overflow crowd. Featuring an impressive blend of showmanship, comedy, vocal harmonics, and intricate instrumentals, the show is presented nightly seven days a week. Sharing the stage with Sandy and the Vikings are Bill's usual bevy of TIGER KITTENS, who are known for their looks, personality, terpsichorean talents, and impressive distribution of poundage (like 40-24-36 multiplied by 25 girls) . . . L'AUBERGE, chic French restaurant near Atherton, is famous for its charming courtyard atmosphere and gastronomic delicacies, presided over by chef GEORGE BOLLAG and Maitre d' LOUIS. Don't overlook the intimate cocktail retreat with its soft lights and romantic fireplace. Enjoy your favorite aperitif prepared with professional finesse by maestro of the mixes, EDDIE DANIELS.

James Boasso Opens Kahili

The Kahili, latest addition to the Peninsula's "Scotch and Soda" circuit, will make it's debut on Tuesday, March 29, and Wednesday, March 30. In celebration of the grand opening, lady guests will be gifted with orchids and there will be hors d'oeuvres for all.

The owner of this "Island dream" is James Boasso, who formerly owned the Cinnabar in Burlingame, and the Supreme Wine and Liquor Store. Which means James is no new comer in the beverage field.

Versatile Jerry Abbot and his Playboys are offering patrons at Larry's Edgemar Club in Pacifica music, comedy, song, and dance not soon to be forgotten. Boasting extravagant costumes and fanciful sets, the show is the first of it's kind in that area. Don't miss it.

☆

Raves a-plenty for the excellent prime rib dinners of the King Henry variety served at Doran's in Belmont. Both luncheon and dinner is served; plenty of parking space.

Foster's Plan Menu Surprise

Norman Sanders is the new manager of Foster's Original Pancake House in Hillsdale. "Pancake House" here means more than just pancakes. This full-fledged restaurant features such entrees as turkey, beef, pot roast and Farm Fried Chicken—to eat in or take out.

Mr. Sanders has many ideas for Foster's future business — such as an "All you can eat" pancake feast and the popular free apple pie with take-out chicken orders. By keeping an eye open for Foster's advertisements, you'll be keeping some extra dollars in your pocket when taking advantage of their specials.

"Capretto" Easter Special Served At Bertolucci's

In addition to their regular menu, Bertolucci's in South San Francisco will feature an Easter special known as "Cappretto," which has proven over the years to be the hottest Easter item ever to hit the food industry. Famous for Mama Bertolucci's Cannelloni, the restaurant is open seven days a week.

☆

Next time you're out Los Gatos way, stop in at the picturesque La Hacienda Inn. You will find the food, service and atmosphere is hard to beat.

Scotty Campbell's Antiques Continue To Pop Up

Antiques continue to pop up at Scotty Campbell's! Theresa Urban, co-owner and hostess of this outstanding Redwood City restaurant, says in her "Directors Room," which is used for banquets, she has seven chairs that are "direct descendants" of those used by the original board of directors of the Bank of Italy. Hence, the name "Directors Room." Seating up to 40 persons, the room is available for parties and banquets. The first seven guests to arrive are seated in the directors' chairs.

☆

No lull in business at Fred and Jerry Rapp's swank Holiday Inn in South San Francisco. The veteran hotel owners have food, entertainment and comfortable room available 365 days of the year. A reservation call to Restaurant Manager Claude Schroeder will set you right in for the fun time of your life.

☆

With all the cries of "help" from the various clubs who are not featuring a Topless act, you hear nary a word from Finocchio's on San Francisco's famous Broadway. Their business is just like "Old Man River"—it just keeps rollin' along.

Voter Registration Drive

SURROUNDED BY A group of charming young ladies, Daly City Mayor Francis Pacelli signs a proclamation stating that April 2 to 14, will be "Voter Registration Week," in Daly City. From left, the girls are: Mrs. Philip Foster, deputy registrar of voters; Robin Orr of Westmoor High School; Elsie Boyd of the Girl Scouts, and Yvonne Pack of Jefferson High School. (Post-Times Photo)

D.C. Mayor Issues Voter Proclamation

Daly City Mayor Francis P. Pacelli has declared the two weeks beginning Saturday through April 14 "Register to Vote Days" in Daly City.

An intensive drive to register voters for the June primary will begin Saturday, with door-to-door contact with residents by members of Girl Scout, Boy Scout and Westmoor and Jefferson High School groups.

Volunteer registrars will also man booths at several Daly City shopping centers between Saturday and the April 14 registration deadline.

According to the City Clerk's office, there are 56 deputy registrars in the Daly City-Colma area, all of whom are available to sign up voters. Residents who are unable to go to the City Clerk's office or a shopping center may call the clerk for the name of the nearest registrar in their neighborhood.

Registrars will be available at the Westlake Foods Market, Westlake Shopping Center; Skyline Plaza Market, Safeway Store in St. Francis Heights, and Mayfair Markets on Junipero Serra and Mission Street, at the following times:

Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2; Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 7-9, and Wednesday and Thursday, April 13 and 14, from 5 to 8:30 weekday evenings, and 11 to 6 Saturdays.

In his proclamation, Mayor Pacelli noted that "full voter participation . . . is a foundation necessary to the maintenance and nourishment of our democratic system of government."

"Full voter registration," the mayor said, "is an indispensable requirement to full participation by the citizens of this city of Daly City in the electoral process."

Younger Hits Ryan Charge Over Health

In the pink of condition and in top form, Congressman J. Arthur Younger, flanked by Republican leaders, last week delivered a stinging rebuke to Democrat assemblyman Leo Ryan's charge that he plans to resign after the June primary because of his health, and thereby provide an opening for a hand-picked successor.

At a press conference held at Benjamin Franklin Hotel, he referred to Ryan's assertion of such a conspiracy as a "vicious, baldfaced lie," adding, "I'm sure his political caretaker, Jesse Unruh, would be ashamed of him for practicing such gutter politics."

Ryan's motive for the action stems from his frustration over his inability to run for Younger's job, the Congressman said. "He's drooling for it," he added noting that when he earlier announced his intention to seek re-election, "it knocked Ryan's hopes into a cocked hat."

Republican leaders said Ryan's move from South San Francisco to Burlingame, was to get away from his image as a north county representative and put himself in a stronger position for a bid for Congress.

Younger declared he took his usual annual health check-up at Bethesda Naval Hospital in January, before the opening session of Congress and passed it with flying colors. He invited anyone interested to get the results.

Secondly, he and Attorney Frank Ingersoll, his campaign chairman, said, "Ryan not only doesn't know what he's talking about, but doesn't even have his legal facts straight."

A research into the law by Ingersoll disclosed, he said, "It is absolutely impossible for a man to file his declaration for nomination and then get his name off the ballot in the manner Ryan had indicated." It can only happen if a candidate is appointed to a higher position, or if he dies.

Sipping his glass of orange juice, "to make sure I get all my vitamins," Younger said, "When I filed my declaration as a candidate, I took an oath to run if nominated and serve if elected. Leo Ryan may not value his oath very much, but I do. I am a candidate. If nominated, I shall run, and if elected I shall serve—period!"

Personnel Board Hearing:

Union Hits D.C. Wages, Asks More Pay, Benefits

Daly City municipal employes by and large do not earn as much money as their counterparts in comporable San Mateo County cities, the Daly City Personnel Board was told last week.

"Daly City is a big city—a growing city—and it's going to have to act like one," said Frank Gillis, business represetatve of Local 919 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, which represents slightly less than one-fourth of the city's employes.

One of the biggest discrepancies, Gillis siad, is in the classification of parks supervisor. Daly City pays a top salary of $841 per month, he said, while San Mateo pays $1,061 and Redwood City, $1,072.

"These are fantastic figures," declared Gillis dramatically, "and they've got to be corrected."

Lower Pay

An even bigger differential is in the salary of the city building inspector, according to Gillis. His figures show that Daly City's highest salary is $884, San Mateo's $1,165 and Redwood City's $1,134.

The $281 difference between Daly City and San Mateo he termed "an unbelievable inequity."

In addition to correction of the "inequities" the union is asking for a 5 per cent across-the-board increase for Daly City employes in the forthcoming fiscal year.

Also requested in extension of health plan benefits to dependents of city employes. Gillis cited private industry, and said that several other cities now provide such coverage.

A long-term disability insurance program is also on the union's list of fringe benefit requests. Gillis told the personnel board that such a plan should assure an employe two-thirds of his pay for up to 5 years, after a 30-day waiting period.

Daly City employes are not presently covered by State unemployment compensation, he said, and have no recourse when their sick leave is used up by an extended illness.

As for vacations, Gillis termed the Daly City practice of granting three weeks' vacation after seven years' employment "out moded." He asked that the qualifying period be lowered to five years.

Still citing private industry, the union spokesman asked that board members recommend that employes be granted a day off either Friday or Monday, when a holiday falls on Saturday.

A night shift differential of five per cent is also being requested by the union.

It would cover any employe who begins work ater 1:59 p.m. and before 5 a.m.

This, too, said Gillis, "is an accepted practice in private industry (and is) becoming more and more prevalent in governmental agencies."

A final benefit requested. Gillis told the board, "would not cost the city anything at the present time." All he asked, he said, was that the city manager be instructed to undertake a survey to determine the cost of an employe dental plan, to be put into effect at a later date.

The personnel board, which has been conducting hearings on requests from various city agencies for 1966-67 fiscal year, accepted the 21-page request from Gillis for further study.

Greyhound Tahoe Play Tour One of the Best

THERE ARE MANY INVITING package tours to Lake Tahoe (South Shore) with refunds in all price ranges. But one your BRIGHT LIGHTER (being one who visits the Tahoe Stateline area at least once a week and who has tried just about all the transportation suggestions, except a sleigh ride) highly recommends the Greyhound Tahoe Play Tour. This tour is for those who would like to stay and play for two days in the gala atmosphere of Lake Tahoe's South Shore (Stateline) for a price as low as $6.95. MR. LLOYD SHIPPEY, a Greyhound excutive, is responsible for setting up this giant value tour, which includes one night at the Park Avenue Motel, a hearty Dealer's Breakfast, plus an eye-opening fizz at BARNEY'S CASINO. Two bonus coupons (in cash or refreshments—value $1), $3 cash refund at Barney's Casino, and courtesy round-trip transportation from the Greyhound Depot to the motel—from the motel to Barney's Casino. The $6.95 price does not include Greyhound Bus transportation between your home city and Stateline. This package is per person sharing twin, double, or triple accommodations (for two or three persons traveling together). This is for stayovers Sunday through Thursday nights. Rates for Friday and Saturday are slightly higher. Contact your local Greyhound agent for the correct transportation fare from your locality.

'Hands Off,' Garvey Tells Planners

San Mateo City Councilman Robert C. Garvey Monday set forth certain guidelines of his own for the proposed general plan, currently under study, and in effect sharply clipped the planners' wings.

He told them to hurry up and produce a workable plan, that it does not have to be "geared to perfection." He outlined his categorical objections to current studies involving traffic circulation, the proposed one-way street system, rapid transit station sites, apartment development, the library site, civic center proposal and sewage and drainage plans.

In effect he serves notice on planners that some areas are strictly within the "council's sphere of influence" and as far as he's concerned the planning department might as well keep its hands off.

He also takes the occasion to shoot down the "planned development" method of land development and charges it "ignores the rules of good planning in the interest of allowing individual whims and preferences to prevail."

Specifically Garvey wants the planners "as a personal favor" to drop any reference to moving Fitzgerald Field or providing any off-street parking for the recreational center in Central Park. He declares he at least isn't about to allocate any such space in the park, other than that needed for deliveries.

'Waterfront'

Instead planners ought to direct their attention to a "careful and immediate study of a plan of development of the city's waterfront and plans for filling portions of the Bay, developing those water - oriented golf courses and other projects which have been discussed and at least by implication, approved by the council."

He adds that the general plan is required in order to make San Mateo eligible for certain public funds. "This fact should be kept uppermost in the planning commission's minds as they work towards an early result," he says, continuing "While perfection is certainly a laudable end, it seems to me from my own experience that this is an impossibility in such a thing as a general plan, and that it is more impotant that we quickly accomplish some thing, than that we spend too much time and money aiming at the ideal. Changes are inevitable, and desirable, and can be made as the result of the best of all teachers, experience."

More specifically he says the existing adopted major street plan should go into the general plan, en toto. There should not be any showing of a "detailed intent to widen existing streets," and the city can't build new arterials, he stresses. "It is," he goes on, "in my opinion, a complete waste of time to talk of locating rapid transit stations until the West Bay Transit District has formulated more definite plans than at present.

In the realm of apartment development, Garvey points to the record. He declares while it is an element of the general plan needing attention, the council has made "strenuous efforts to confine apartments to specified and proper areas, to require high construction standards, to achieve quality results." Policy has already been pretty well laid down.

"My opinion is," declares Garvey, "that the only really bad things that have happened to San Mateo, have grown out of the so-called planned development situation which ignores the rules of good planning in the interest of allowing individual whims and preferences to prevail. I believe that the rules of zoning should be simple and easy to understand, without involvment in so much language and so many details that in the end no one understands them."

Also he downgrades the effort to devise square foot ratios in attempting to find an ideal apartment regulation. Garvey reminds that more than a year ago he recommended a code change to allow a minimum 20-foot setback for garages be considered, to accommodate cars between garage doors and sidewalks.

He does not favor use of general tax funds in a capital improvement program for open space acquisition. This should be done by submitting issues to the voters. He cites to the council's credit the recent voters' approval of the new recreation center bond issue, and reminds parks are constantly being improved. "We have park areas," he adds, "which are very little used and have been largely neglected."

The library site, civic center site, sewage and drainage improvements, establishment of a sewer connection or similar charge have no place in a general plan and are strictly something within the council's province, he states.

Village Way Wins Again—Round Three

Few people were at home on Village Way in South San Francisco Monday night—the explanation was simple: they were all at city hall.

The occasion was round three in the Village Way residents' battle to keep a new car dealer from expanding his sales facilities to their corner.

David and Alvin Arata had asked a permit to allow them to display new automobiles on what was formerly the back yard of a house at the corner of Village Way and Linden Avenue.

The house—now used for offices—faces Village Way. The lot faces Linden. The zoning is commercial.

The Planning Commission, after hearing protests about traffic and pedestrian safety, and congestion, last month recommended that the city council deny the request.

But the council, which must make the final decision, had bowed to an appeal by a spokesman for the dealer and sent the application back to the planning commission, for further study.

Last night, the commission met again.

In the audience were some 20 residents of Village Way, to resist any further encroachments by business and industry that surround their horseshoe-shaped street.

About the only residents who did not march up before the commissioners and have their say were the young children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Squires. They slept through the proceedings.

(The Squires, who live at 284 Village Way, explained that their baby sitter had a high school engagement.)

Village Way had won another round.

The outcome of the fight will be determined when the city council again cosniders the matter Monday.

Design For Carlos Hall

San Francisco architects Lun Chan and Morton Rader were publicly introduced to the San Carlos City Council for the first time Monday as the prospective architects for the proposed new city hall and master plan for a civic center.

The council then officially appointed the Chan-Rader and Associates firm as the architects, with Councilman Thomas M. Jenkins recalling that the selection had taken over four months and many trips to various firms before narrowing the choices down to nine, then three, before final award of the job.

Edward Kenney, a San Carlos architect and candidate for the State Assembly, admonished the council or not having more publicity on the search for an architect because his firm didn't hear of it. Jenkins answered that this had been discussed several times at council meetings before nearly empty houses.

Medal Given For Mateo GI

The Soldier's Medal has been presented to San Mateo City Manager and Mrs. Arthur B. Sullivan on behalf of their son, Pfc. Richard A. Sullivan who was killed in combat in Viet Nam last January 24. He was a paratrooper with the 101st Airborne Division.

The citation accompanying the medal states: "Private First Class Richard Sullivan distinguished himself by heroic action on 11 September, 1965, while assisting in a rescue of injured personnel from a burning helicopter.

"At approximately 0930 hours a helicopter developed engine trouble and made a crash landing near An Khe, Republic of Viet Nam. The aircraft caught fire and ammunition began to explode while personnel were trying to free themselves from the wreckage.

"Private First Class Sullivan, without regard for his own personal safety, rushed to the helicopter to aid the personnel trapped inside. Despite flame and exploding ammunition, he jumped into the flaming wreckage to assist in removing the trapped passengers. Removing boxes of burning ammunition from the aircraft and using a fire extinguisher, Pfc. Sullivan aided in carrying one of the door gunners to safety.

"Had it not been for Pfc. Sullivan's courageous action and presence of mind, the injured pilot and personnel inside the burning helicopter might have perished.

"Demonstrating courage, determination, and devotion to duty of the highest order, Pfc. Sullivan without hesitation, placed the life of his fellow man above his own and succeeded in saving the injured personnel from possible death or serious injury . . . (his) actions were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Army, and reflect great credit upon himself and the military service."

The announcement of the award was made at Headquarters of the Field Force in Viet Nam by Brigadier General Paul F. Smith, chief of staff.

The authorization for the medal, "by direction of the President under the provisions of the Act of Congress"

Pfc. Sullivan was a member of the 101st Airborne Division, and was killed by a sniper while in combat operation. He had been in the Army a little more than a year and had been in Viet Nam since last July serving as a paratrooper.

He had attended local schools, including the College of San Mateo, and had observed his twentieth birthday, just a week prior to his death. The family home is at 585 Edgewood Road in San Mateo.

Anticipate Pedro Beach Use Battle

Private commercial use of Pedro Beach may be facing a battle at an April 4 Planning Commission meeting in Pacifica.

Two requests protesting a zoning change of their beach property were sent to Councilmen by Peter T. LoBianco and Lawrence Wiechers.

LoBianco's property is south of Wander Inn and is being used as a real estate office. "Is Pacifica hoping to de-evaluate land which it wants to purchase on the beach?" LoBianco questioned in his letter.

Councilwoman Grace McCarthy stated at a council meeting last Wednesday evening: "The uses to which these properties are put are not compatible for beach use." Pedro is considered to be the best beach area in Pacifica and has the most use by bathers and surfers. Most of it is privately owned but is being eyed by Pacifica for purchase if a beach bond proposal is successful in an April election.

Councilman Don McMannis said that he felt that the requests for zoning from Agricultural to Commercial-Recreation were justified and should be referred to the Planning Commission for a zoning change.

Scheduled for April 4, the Planning Commission meeting and subsequent public hearings may determine future beach use.

Cable TV Progresses

What ever happened to Cable TV in Pacifica? This question, asked at the recent Pacifica Council meeting was answered by City Manager Karl Baldwin. The site has been acquired in Linda Mar, he said, and construction of the supporting cable is now underway. Some of the cables will be put underground in the Park Pacifica area, but a pole line will come down the main hill from the antenna site.

Baldwin added that verbal agreements are now being reached on easements through the Sportsmen Club and Catholic Church property in the area. No deadline for completion of the whole project has been set.

Boys' Club Open House

Boys' Club week is being celebrated nationally and at the local club.

Yesterday was "bring a friend" day. Today features "parent and son" night; Thursday is "arts and crafts" day and Friday will spotlight "prizes for funny hats."

Saturday will be public service day with the boys participating in clean-up work in the city. An open invitation to parents and friends to attend tomorrow is issued.

LEGAL NOTICE LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, will receive sealed bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation, and services required for

QUIZ

(For answers see bottom of ad)

My idea of a good job is one where I will have:

1.—( ) A good starting salary

2.—( ) Advancements according to my ability—not according to seniority

3.—( ) Good company benefits

4.—( ) Proper training and full pay while learning

5.—( ) A chance to help people

Check them all? If so, you scored 100%! Telephone operators believe they have good jobs—because they receive all the above—and more!

Important Message from Ralph Williams,
Owner of Williams Ford

"Our goal this weekend is to sell 150 cars. Even though we are OK Ford Dealership, we have never sold this many cars on a weekend. "THE ONLY WAY WE CAN DO THIS IS TO HAVE THE CARS IN STOCK SERVICED AND READY FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY AND PRICED SO LOW THAT THEY WILL SELL THEMSELVES!

"Take advantage of this GIANT SALE and save as never before and by the way, you will help us with our goal of 150 cars this weekend!"

FOUR METHODS

Laguna Debates Grade Grouping

Four methods of grouping seventh and eighth grade students are being studied in the Laguna Salada Union School District, Supt. Fred Lucas told the board of trustees last night.

The first would leave the situation mainly as it is, with seventh and eighth grade classes widely dispersed and housed near their homes.

A second suggestion would maintain present pupil housing guidelines, "with the exception that there be not less than six nor more than ten classes of upper grade pupils in the school.

"This plan," according to the report by Lucas, "would establish one upper grade school and large concentrations of upper grade pupils in three other schools."

Each plan's advantages and disadvantages are being weighed by a series of committees, Lucas said. Among the factors under consideration are housing, public relations (and reaction), personnel, budget, transportation and other possible problems.

"We anticipate no problem in the housing of small children in their neighborhood schools," he continued. Further, said Buel, the committee foresees no transportation problems.

With the larger group of upper grade classes concentrated together, he added, there would be some "displacement" of lower grade pupils who would have to be shifted to other schools.

We have some concern about the adequacy of some facilities for the large grouping program, Buel said, citing the height of such things as blackboards and lavatory fixtures which are now geared for children in the lower elementary grades.

Lucas presented a letter on the subject, which he said is being discussed by the faculties in each Laguna Salada district school.

The problem, as outlined by Lucas, is this: "One or more children in each of several classes more or less, continually disrupts the instructional program to a degree that the learning situation for other children is seriously impaired.

The object of the current discussions, he said, is to bring forth new suggestions for correcting the situation.

Lions Contest Won by S.B. Boy

A San Bruno youth won the Lions' Club Student Speakers Contest held in San Mateo last weekend.
